SEE NEED FOR UNIFORMITY IN COMPANY LAW

Premiers Agree on Correction of Long-Standing Abusive Situation

DOING AWAY WITH MANY COMPLEXITIES

OTTAWA, Jan. 18 (CP).—The death knell for "evasive" companies was sounded at the Dominion-Provincial Conference today. With marked unanimity, the delegates agreed that steps be taken to prepare a uniform Companies Act for the provinces and the Dominion. The action is supported by a resolution of the Canadian Bar Association passed in Calgary last September.

Designed for the protection of the public, the uniformity will correct an abusive situation developed over many years. The complexities have been many.

VARYING LAWS

Incorporation applications have been made to the Dominion and refused. Many have turned to the provinces later, with their varying provincial company laws. In a number of instances they secured provincial charters. Through the licensing provisions of some of the provinces, these concerns then extended their operations.

Sometimes the proposed incorporations have had to pass from one province to another to get provincial incorporation. Complaints also have been made in the case of Dominion companies who only required to register in a province to carry on.

UNIFORMITY IS CURE

Uniformity of the requirements and methods of incorporation in the Dominion and the nine provinces will be made to cope with this situation. When drafted, the legislation will be introduced in Parliament and all provincial legislatures.

The United States has a similar situation on its hands. Incorporations by the State of New Jersey are said to be easier to procure than in the majority of States. In Can-

LIBERAL POLICY IS ENUNCIATED

Ian Mackenzie Outlines Party's Financial and Unemployment Plans

Hon. Ian A. Mackenzie, who last year enunciated the policy for the Liberal party in Canada, and which was later endorsed by Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, titular leader of the party, has once more declared the proposals of Federal Liberals.

In a speech made at Vancouver last night, he advocated the establishment of parity between the Canadian dollar and British pound; the lowering of savings bank interest from three to one and a half per cent; making all tax-free bonds pay interest, and the conversion of all outstanding internal Canadian loans to three per cent.

NATIONAL BANK

Continuing on the monetary system, according to the Canadian Press report, the speaker declared for establishment of a national financial committee based upon the Macmillan committee of Great Britain, with specific power to review the general financial system of Canada and also review the entire structure of governmental debts and governmental expenditures, and proceed immediately towards the formation of a national bank for Canada.

"It is safe to assert," he continued, "that unless there is the utmost co-operation from the banks to remedy the present situation, we may be faced with the problem, not only of forming a national bank of rediscount, but of the complete nationalization of the banking system of Canada. One thing is certain, the control of currency and credit must be placed in the hands of a national institution and taken out of the hands of financial operators."

STAND ON UNEMPLOYMENT

Regarding unemployment, Mr. Mackenzie set out the Liberal policy as follows:

"We regard this entire problem as a primary responsibility of the nation.

LEAVES TO SEEK LOST AIRWOMAN

LONDON, Jan. 19 (AP).—The London Sketch says the noted pilot, Capt. P. D. Barnard, left London this morning to look for Lady Mary Bailey, aviatrix, of whom nothing has been heard since she set out for Oran on a flight to Capetown Sunday.

Capt. Barnard, who taught the aviatrix how to fly, has had wide experience in flying. He piloted the aged Duchess of Bedford on flights from London to India and from London to Capetown.

Predicts Ocean Service by Rocket Express

Professor Auguste Piccard and his family — Stratosphere Balloon

PROFESSOR Auguste Piccard, noted Swiss professor of stratosphere fame, has invented a rocket which he believes eventually may be practical for transatlantic mail and passenger service. Professor Piccard has calculated that his rocket could make 186.4 miles a minute and thus would be capable of crossing the Atlantic Ocean in less than half an hour. The professor and Dr. Albert Einstein will meet shortly in California, when rockets will be discussed.

CHARGE MET BY RIDICULE

Judge Stubbs Makes Bitter Counter-Attacks in His Own Defence

WINNIPEG, Jan. 18 (CP).—Grey, wrinkled little judge of the County Court, Lewis St. George Stubbs, is a proud man, and when it comes to his being given a choice between judge and man, he will remain a man. Today he told Mr. Justice Frank Ford he never would be "relegated to the position of a rubber stamp."

Judge Stubbs concluded a two-day attack on judges of the Court of Appeal, the Provincial and Dominion Governments, and others who accused him of judicial misconduct.

SCATHING RIDICULE

Excited and visibly agitated, Judge Stubbs dramatically declared he had done no wrong, and proceeded to scathingly ridicule the charges as applied against him. Any harm that had accrued to the judicial institution in Manitoba was not inflicted by him, but by the "irregular action of the Court of Appeal," declared, the judge, who for the last two days has appeared as a witness in his own behalf.

The complaint from the judges of the Court of Appeal regarding Judge Stubbs' actions in the Macdonald will case hearing, he branded as an "outrageous, unfair thing, which will rank in history as a constitutional curiosity and freak document."

These judges, he declared, had constituted themselves his accusers,

Italy Is Planning To Denounce Trade Pact With Russia

ROME, Jan. 18 (AP).—Dissatisfied because Italian purchases in Russia have been exceeding Russian purchases in Italy, the Italian Government will denounce the 1924 commercial treaty with the Soviet within the next three weeks.

This treaty is the only document in which Italy formally recognizes the Soviet Government, but diplomatic relations will continue as at present.

Washington Gripped by Snowstorm

SEATTLE, Jan. 18 (AP).—Gripped by the worst snowstorm of the season, virtually the entire Northwest today was covered with a blanket of white.

Air mail service was halted, hundreds of automobiles and motor buses were stalled and countless minor accidents were caused by the snow, which ranged from a tenth of an inch in Seattle to six inches at Olympia and a foot deep at Lake Quinalt. The snow is considerably deeper in the inland empire.

The first storm fatality occurred this morning when Lois Seeman, seven, of Kent, blinded by the snow, walked into the path of a Seattle-bound motor bus and was instantly killed.

Although below normal temperatures are predicted for tonight and tomorrow, a break in the storm is expected by tomorrow night, the Seattle weather bureau reported.

NO TRACE OF DECAY FOUND

Douglas Fir Timbers Still Sound After Many Years in Place

VANCOUVER, Jan. 18.—Douglas fir timbers taken from the foundations of Glencoe Lodge, which was wrecked last Summer after standing for forty-three years, showed no evidence of decay after rigorous tests had been made on them by the forest products laboratory at the University of British Columbia.

Similar tests were made on timbers taken from Hastings Mill, dismantled in 1930, and Granville Street bridge, which was redecked in 1929, and results were almost identical in the case of unexposed timbers. Where they were exposed to direct contact with moisture, it was found that some surface deterioration had taken place. The Granville bridge timbers had been in service twenty years, and those at Hastings Mill from twenty to thirty years.

CAREFUL INSPECTION

While wrecking was in progress at Glencoe Lodge, and a large part of the frame was exposed, a careful inspection was made by laboratory representatives of the joists, studs, beams, wall plates and girders to determine their condition after their forty-three years' service. No evidence of decay was found, neither was there a single instance noted in which a structural member gave visible evidence of failure to support its load satisfactorily. Laboratory tests confirmed this opinion.

This inspection was carried out by J. B. Alexander, B.Sc., City Architect A. J. Bird, and the chief grading inspector of the British Columbia Lumber and Shingle Manufacturers' Association.

OPINION CONFIRMED

It has been difficult to obtain definite data on the serviceibility of Douglas fir over a long period of years, but the Glencoe Lodge wrecking offered a rare opportunity to lumbermen to confirm their opinion of the lasting qualities of this product.

Lions Might Die of Cold Before Shot

WOLF ISLAND, Mo., Jan. 18 (AP).—Rain-soaked, the twenty members of Denver M. Wright's lion-hunting expedition are camped on a Mississippi River island near here waiting for clear weather before releasing two lions to be hunted down in the best South African style.

It would not be humane to release them now, Wright said. "They might catch cold and die."

BURGLAR LOCKS SAFE

EMPORIA, Kas., Jan. 18 (CP).—The Smith Lumber Company safe was not locked, but a burglar did not know it. He pounded the combination with a hammer, and in so doing locked the safe so that neither he nor company official could get inside.

Vast Congregation Pays Last Tribute To Premier's Wife

Sorrowing Citizens Fill Christ Church Cathedral to Capacity at Funeral of Late Mrs. S. F. Tolmie—Great Testimony of Affection

IN the vast and reverent congregation which overflowed the nave and chapel into the aisles and gallery, and the aisles and gallery into the west porch of the cathedral, Victoria yesterday afternoon paid its last tribute to the memory of a universally-loved woman and its sympathy with the bereaved family of the late Mrs. S. F. Tolmie, whose funeral was held from Christ Church at 2:30 o'clock.

In harmony with her character, which was completely devoid of ostentation, pomp or display, the services were extremely simple, but nevertheless deeply impressive because of the heartfelt tribute expressed by the many organizations, groups, and individuals representing every interest and every class in the community. Hundreds stood bareheaded on the cathedral steps at the close of the service while the long procession formed into line behind the funeral carriage. Hundreds of others formed part of the procession and drove out to the cemetery at Royal Oak to attend the final committal rites conducted by Canon the Hon. Joshua Hinchliffe.

CATHEDRAL FILLS

An hour before the service at the cathedral began many of the pews were filled, and by a quarter past two, with the exception of specially reserved pews, no seats remained in the nave or side aisles and the galleries were beginning to fill. Shortly after His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor arrived and moved to his pew in the front of the cathedral, other specially-reserved pews were filled in quick succession by repre-

Find Frozen Bodies Of Chinese Soldiers In Fortified Position

Volunteers Defied all Japanese Attacks on Top of Mountain

LEAGUE OF NATIONS MAKES LAST EFFORT

SHANGHAI, Jan. 19 (Thursday) (AP).—Chinese press reports said 380 frozen bodies of Chinese soldiers, clad in thin Summer uniforms, with rifles clasped in their hands, were discovered at their posts on Mount Takushan, in the Manchurian fighting zone, by Japanese scouts.

Victims of the tragedy were Chinese volunteers who were being hard pressed by the Japanese troops in December, the reports said, and withdrew to the top of the mountain, where they stubbornly defended themselves in a fortified position for two weeks.

Reports said they repulsed all Japanese attacks.

With the coming of cold weather a lull in the fighting occurred, and the Japanese were reported eventually to have sent scouts, who found the position occupied only by corpses.

ONE MORE EFFORT

GENEVA, Jan. 18 (AP).—The League of Nations conciliation committee of ten decided today to make another effort at conciliating the Sino-Japanese dispute before advancing to procedure regardless of Japanese opposition.

The committee authorized its chairman to suggest the committee would accept the Japanese demand not to invite the United States and Russia to participate in the process of conciliation if the Japanese, on their part, would withdraw other objections to the committee's formula.

Then the committee adjourned until Friday to give the Japanese delegates time to ask instructions from Tokio. The sentiment of the committee was described as in favor of abandoning conciliation unless Japan is disposed to accept the compromise suggestion.

SCHOOL BUDGET IS INCREASED

Drastic Cuts Are Imperative to Keep Mill Rate Same as That of 1932

An increase of $24,188 in the 1933 requirements above those of 1932, was the result of last night's special meeting of the city school board on the budget. After the first draft of the estimates had been struck, it was found drastic economies probably would have to be made in the matter of salaries if the school rate for 1933 was not to be increased by half a mill.

The gross total expenditures amount to $585,233.97, and the gross total receipts amount to $106,645, which leaves a net expenditure total of $478,588.97. This figure is $24,188.66 more than the actual net expenditures of 1932.

BUDGET DETAILS

Estimated receipts from grants in respect to ordinary teachers' salaries amounted to $73,845, while the total Government grants for all salaries were $75,845. This, George H. Deane, municipal school inspector, stated was $33,482.15 less than that of 1932. The reason that the increase in the estimated net expenditures for this year was only $24,188.66, was due to the fact that the teachers' payroll was based on the salaries paid after the 5 per cent cut last September.

Trustee J. L. Beckwith, chairman of the finance committee, pointed out in regard to receipts that in 1929, $27,120 had been received from Saanich in behalf of high school students, while this year the revenue would amount to only $250. The cost of operating the high school was approximately the same now as it was in 1929, and the city would have been $27,000 better off if they had not turned out the Saanich pupils by voting down the technical school by-law, he claimed.

WORK SURVEYED

Trustee W. C. Moresby, K.C., chairman of the building and grounds committee, reported that he had conferred with the superintendent of works, and a complete

England and Scotland Enveloped in Worst Fog in Years

LONDON, Jan. 18 (AP).—Traffic on land and sea was forced to struggle today with one of the worst fogs in years. At Southampton, the Berengaria, scheduled to sail at noon, was unable to get away until just before midnight. The Aquitania, held up by fog for several hours, managed to slip into Southampton Harbor late tonight. The Leviathan was forced to remain in Cowes Roads.

Some channel boats were delayed as much as twelve hours. As evening advanced the fog crept inland and most of England was covered by a cold dismal blanket of concentrated dampness.

Glasgow experienced one of the worst fogs in recent years, and tram cars, automobiles and buses were held up for hours. Not a ship has moved in the Clyde since mid-afternoon Monday.

Some Provinces Not Willing to Surrender Power

Release of Authority Stumbling Block in Discussions on Contributory Unemployment Insurance—Committee Looking for Acceptable Plan—Delegates Have Little Hope of Unanimity

(Special to The Colonist)

OTTAWA, Jan. 18.—With little hope of unanimity but determined to search for a plan that will met with as complete approval as possible among the parties concerned, a committee of the Dominion-Provincial Conference, now in session here, tonight is endeavoring to draft a formula for some scheme of contributory unemployment insurance.

Premier Bennett yesterday proposed the Federal Government assume full responsibility for a contributory unemployment insurance scheme, this proposal was conditional on the provinces agreeing to an amendment to the British North America Act, which would give the Federal Government constitutional authority to so act. It was proposed also, that for some years each province would make a graduated annual contribution to be eventually completed.

STAND OF PROVINCES

Prince Edward Island and Nova Scotia representatives were not prepared to commit their respective provinces without further consultation. New Brunswick was not favorable. Quebec was opposed and Ontario showed little enthusiasm in amending the constitution to transfer certain provincial power to the Federal Government.

Manitoba was favorable, Alberta and Saskatchewan saw no objection to amending the constitution to further the end proposed. British Columbia representatives wished time for consideration by the Cabinet of that province.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED

A committee was appointed to draft some formula that would be acceptable to all the provinces that would enable them to subscribe to Mr. Bennett's proposal, or some scheme that would provide such an unemployment scheme.

It was agreed that contributory unemployment insurance would not meet the present labor situation, but would be a preventive for any such future situation that might be probable.

AMERICANS ASK INVESTIGATION

Police Protection for Life and Property Also Requested From Tokio

TOKIO, Jan. 18 (AP).—The destruction of valuable equipment and records in a riot of disgruntled employees at the Singer Sewing Machine Company's branch at Yokohama today caused American Ambassador Joseph C. Grew to request the Japanese Government to make an immediate investigation and to provide adequate police protection for American life and property.

The rioters, nearly 200 strong, swarmed through the building, smashing typewriters and furniture, damaging safes, breaking doors and windows and tearing up installment sale contracts and other valuable documents.

LOSS IS HEAVY

Richard McCleary, representative of the company's New York headquarters, said the loss was "likely to reach several hundred thousand yen."

"I am unable to understand how nearly two hundred men were able to assemble and raid the premises in the heart of Yokohama without the police being able to halt them," McCleary said.

W. L. Malone, a member of the Singer staff, said most of the rioters were armed with clubs. A motor car dumped a load of these clubs in front of the building at the beginning of the attack, Malone declared.

The riot climaxed a series of labor troubles which began last Summer when a group of employees struck against a 10 per cent pay reduction—the first pay cut, according to McCleary, since the depression began.

Foreign Minister Viscount Yasyua Uchida promised Ambassador Grew that the requested investigation would be made and American lives and property would be protected. Grew recalled that the embassy previously had directed the attention of the Japanese authorities to the Singer labor troubles and had asked that precautions be taken against violence.

Because a Swiss citizen owns the Singer building, the Swiss Legation likewise made representations to the Japanese Foreign Office.

Brewers Hope to Stop Home Brew

OTTAWA, Jan. 18 (CP).—The brewers are hopeful of having the interprovincial conference take steps to stop home brewing, it was learned today. Records of the Department of National Revenue show approximately 200,000 persons have notified the department of their intention of brewing their own beer.

The claim advanced is that the Excise Act and the Provincial Acts clash. One allows private brewing and the other forbids it.

JAPANESE PRINCE CALLED BY DEATH

TOKIO, Thursday, Jan. 19. (AP).—Prince Michizane Kujo, uncle of the Emperor, died today of cerebral thrombosis. He was 63 years old.

Prince Michizane was born December 15, 1869, in Kyoto. The Kujo family are descendants of one of the best known court personages, Kamatari Fujiwara, of old Japan, and are one of the Gosekke, the term meaning five principal families.

Car Accident In Vancouver Proves Fatal

VANCOUVER, Jan. 18 (CP).—R. C. Howse, of Seattle, died in hospital here shortly before 10 o'clock tonight from injuries received late last night when the car he was driving south on Cambie Street Bridge skidded and crashed into the span. He suffered a fracture of the skull and other injuries.

A friend, G. J. Friend, of 5533 Twenty-Sixth Avenue, N.E.N., Seattle, who was riding with him in the car at the time of the accident, was slightly injured.

Mrs. Howse arrived from Seattle this morning and was with her husband when he passed away tonight.

SECRET BODY PUTS TERROR IN CAMPAIGN

Irish Nationalists Complain of Unfair Election Tactics in Tipperary

CARICATURE THOMAS AS BRITISH BOGEY

DUBLIN, Jan. 18 (CP-AP).—President Eamonn de Valera, speaking at Cork before one of the biggest audiences of his campaign, expressed confidence tonight that his Republican party will obtain a majority over all other parties in the election of January 24.

REIGN OF TERROR

Meanwhile what Nationalists described a veritable reign of terror existed in Tipperary and politicians owing allegiance to former President William T. Cosgrave said they were having difficulty in conducting their campaign.

J. T. Hassett, outgoing Nationalist member of the Dail Eireann for Tipperary, wrote the President today and protested his organization could not hire help from the population because of threats from members of a secret body.

THOMAS A BOGEY

During the campaign, which has seen Republican speakers hold up J. H. Thomas, British Dominions secretary, who attempted to negotiate a settlement of the land annuities dispute with President de Valera, as a sort of British bogey, caricatures of Mr. Thomas have appeared on gateposts throught the Free State.

Election rhymes have been written about him and the latest poster bearing a likeness of his features shows him demanding £1,000,000 a year from the Free State. Surrounding him are pictures representing the hangings which occurred during the rebellion of 1916, poverty, starvation and ruin.

PRESIDENT IS CHILLY

The President appeared to be suffering from the intense cold of the last few days as he continued his tour of Waterford and East Cork today. He was wearing two overcoats.

Roads in the district were covered with ice and snow.

GENERAL SMUTS TO MEET ROOS

Attempt Today to Make Anti-Government Coalition Possible

CAPETOWN, South Africa, Jan. 18 (CP). — Usually authoritative sources said today General Jan Christian Smuts will meet Tielman Roos tomorrow and attempt to patch up differences which led a few days ago to a breakdown of negotiations for an anti-Government coalition.

Should the negotiations result in aliance of the South African party, which General Smuts heads, with Opposition forces of Mr. Roos, observers said, Prime Minister J. B. M. Hertzog's administration would probably be voted out of power when the House of Assembly meets on Friday.

The Government was said to have canvassed its own supporters in the House and discovered Mr. Roos, who resigned a Supreme Court judgeship to lead a movement against the ministry of which he was once a member, had insufficient backing himself to swing a vote of non-confidence.

General Smuts conferred today with his three chief lieutenants, Patrick Duncan, Jan Hofmeyr and Deneys Reitz, whom he summoned hastily from Johannesburg, Transvaal. While no announcement was made at the end of the conference, it was understood the four leaders reached an agreement to demand from Mr. Roos certain guarantees before they would pledge allegiance to his cause.

MINE CARETAKER LOST IN NORTH

BURNS LAKE, Jan. 18 (CP).—Unheard from for over a month, Walter Lewis, 53-year-old caretaker of the Owen Lake mine near here, a point on the Canadian National Railways between Smithers and Prince George, is feared to have fallen a victim to bitter cold weather in the wild region near Nadina Mountain. Constable Tate and Game Warden Ramieu, accompanied by Indian trackers, are attempting to follow an old snowshoe trail believed to have been left by the missing man.

First news of Lewis' disappearance was brought here by Indian trappers, who reported finding the caretaker's cabin deserted and food supplies frozen. The last heard of Lewis was in December, when the Canadian Credit Trust Men's Association of Vancouver, who had sent him to the mine property, received a letter dated December 15.

Lewis said he was suffering from a bad cold and was sick

HINKLER RUMORS WERE UNFOUNDED

Airplanes to Explore Othe Forest on Chance Flyer Was Forced Down There Anyhow

PARIS, Jan. 18 (CP).—Hope that the search for Bert Hinkler, missing long-distance flyer, was virtually ended, was dashed tonight when rumors that his airplane had been sighted in the forest of Othe, near the Commune of Bussy, were described as unfounded.

Officials in Auxerre Prefecture, near Othe Forest, said the report probably arose from the fact Hinkler was last sighted definitely in that district on January 7.

Hinkler vanished eleven days ago on a speed flight from Feltham, England, to Australia.

French authorities said airplanes would be sent to explore the Othe Forest tomorrow, on the chance the missng pilot had been forced down there and had never reached Simplon Pass in the Swiss Alps, which Capt. W. L. Hope, his friend, is searching.

Othe Forest is slightly off the direct air-line between Feltham and Brindisi, Italy, first scheduled stop on Hinkler's flight.

sentations from the Provincial Cabinet, the judiciary, the military, the navy, the Federal and Provincial services, the Conservative associations, the City Council, and various service and women's organizations.

JOINTLY CONDUCTED

The service was taken by Rt. Rev. C. D. Schofield, Bishop of Columbia, and Canon the Hon. Joshua Hinchliffe, the former reading the prayers, and Canon Hinchliffe the lesson, Thessalonians 1, Chapter iv, beginning: "I would not have you ignorant, brethern." The service concluded with the singing of the Twenty-Third Psalm.

The choir of boys' voices led the singing of the two hymns, "Lead, Kindly Light," and Rev. J. B. Dykes' setting of the familiar verses of "Nearer, My God, to Thee," accompanied at the organ by Stanley Bulley, who also played the voluntaries and requiem music before the services and the funeral march.

Owing to the great number of wreaths, crosses, sprays, and other flowers sent, only a small number were taken into the cathedral. In addition to those carried in the hearse, four other carriages were required to convey the floral offerings to Royal Oak, where scores of beautiful wreaths and sprays had already been placed about the grave.

The family gathered at the old Cloverdale home at 2 o'clock, immediately preceding to the cathedral. Pallbearers were: Hon. R. H. Pooley, K.C., Hon. N. S. Lougheed, Hon. S. L. Howe, Brigadier J. Sutherland Brown, Captain Hobart Molson, and W. B. Lanigan, who occupied a special pew. SEE NEED FOR UNIFORMITY IN COMPANY LAW ada, Prince Edward Island has more elasticity in its laws of incorporation than many of the other Canadian provinces, but the island province has granted comparatively few charters.

OVERLAPPING TAXATION

The meeting considered steps that might be taken to avoid overlapping by the Dominion and the provinces in taxation and discussed possible schemes of joint administration. A committee is to be appointed to discuss these subjects and make definite recommendations to the conference proper. Its first session probably will be held tomorrow morning.

Income tax principally came under discussion, although taxes on companies and telegraph and telephone imposts also figured.

On the question of joint administration, it is understood that a suggestion was made that either the Dominion or the provinces should do all the collecting and redistribute among the assessing bodies. No action was taken.

Weird Prediction Made by Mexican

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 18 (AP).—J. A. Velenzuela, Mexican consul in Pittsburgh, predicts Canada, the United States and Mexico will unite to form a new league of nations.

The action, he said, would "make the North American continent independent of all the rest of the world.

"Together with Canada," the consul asserted, "we have everything we need and increasing friendliness is going to bring about a league of the three nations."

Provincial Display Officially Opened By Lieut.-Governor

Hon. J. W. Fordham Johnson Expresses Hopes for Bright Future of British Columbia Seed Industry in Officiating at Show Here

"With seed growing still in its infancy here, it is hoped that in the next few years importation of foreign seeds and bulbs will be discontinued, and these will be replaced in Canada by British Columbia grown seeds," declared Hon. J. W. Fordham Johnson, Lieutenant-Governor, during the official opening of the annual British Columbia Seed Fair and Bulb and Potato Display at the Crystal Garden last night.

"The display here indicates the progress which this industry has made during the past few years, and those who are responsible for it are to be congratulated," continued His Honor. A feature of the staging of this year's fair had been the co-operative efforts between the people and those in charge, he said, expressing the hope that this co-operation would continue.

HOPES FOR SUCCESS

Before declaring the show open, His Honor extended best wishes for its success and the success of succeeding ones by the derivation of increasing benefits from world markets.

R. H. B. Ker, president of the Chamber of Commerce, presided at the opening, which was attended by nearly 200 spectators. The chairman voiced appreciation of the action of Hon. William Atkinson, Minister of Agriculture, in allowing the Chamber of Commerce to assist in staging the display.

The visitors to the show and the outside exhibitors were welcomed to the city by Mayor David Leeming. His Worship spoke of the value to the city in developing the seed growing industry, and expressed the city's appreciation of the efforts of the Chamber of Commerce in having the show held in Victoria this year instead of on the Mainland.

The Lieutenant-Governor was welcomed by Mr. Ker, Hon. William Atkinson, Mayor Leeming and J. B. Munro, deputy minister of agriculture.

JUDGING CONTINUES

Judging of the displays at the show continued yesterday, and is expected to be completed early this afternoon.

During the evenings, entertainment is being arranged for those attending the show, which continues until Saturday night. Last night, pupils of Miss Violet Fowkes' Dancing Studio provided a diversified programme of dance numbers.

Provide Work for Men on Relief by Purchasing Bonds

"IT is not generally the men who do the most talking that solve our problems, but the men who are at work. Every man who works is helping to drive poverty out of the world, first his own and then that of his fellows. The people of Victoria can do their part to help by buying Human Interest Bonds," say officials of the Employment Bureau.

"Practically all the men on relief are anxious to work," it is said, "and they are willing to give service in exchange for the bonds you have purchased."

LEGAL FEUD OVER RANCH

New Evidence in "Hodgson-Taylor" Litigation—Security Fast Disappearing

The legal feud between Edward Hodgson, Victoria businessman, and William John Taylor, K.C., also of this city, flared up afresh in the courts here yesterday, when Mr. Hodgson secured an injunction against Mr. Taylor, restraining him from removing piecemeal the assets of the Taylor Ranch in Saanich, which is held by Mr. Hodgson as security for costs pending an appeal by Mr. Taylor to the British Columbia Court of Appeal now sitting here, and a registered judgment.

The injunction order was issued by Mr. Justice W. A. Macdonald in Supreme Court chambers yesterday morning, and holds good until December 31, when Mr. Hodgson, or D. S. Tait, his counsel, will have the right to apply for a further extension.

SECURITY IS MOVING

In his affidavit supporting the application for an injunction, Mr. Hodgson says that he has discovered that the security he holds is fast disappearing. The bathroom has been stripped of its fixtures. The stone pillars supporting the front veranda of the house have been entirely removed. Fencing has been taken away, and chicken houses and outhouses have been hauled away from the ranch.

The case between Mr. Hodgson and Mr. Taylor has been before the courts for several months, Mr. Hodgson securing a judgment against the barrister, Mrs. Minnie Rider and the Oaklawn Investment Company for $17,819.75, following trial in the Supreme Court here. On proceeding to levy execution against the property held by Minnie Rider, an application for a stay of judgment pending appeal was made by counsel representing all three of the defendants. The defendants offered to give a conveyance of the mortgaged premises, and a bond and conveyance was executed and the stay was approved by the court. Following the delivery of the bond and conveyance, Minnie Rider moved away from the ranch all of her goods and chattels which had been taken in execution by the sheriff, and which were released under the conveyance and bond. Mr. Hodgson thus became mortgagee for the mortgaged premises and a registered judgment creditor on his original judgment.

CHATTELS MISSING

Trouble soon developed for Mr. Hodgson, he says in his affidavit. On or about January 10 this year, he became aware that certain pieces of the ranch were being removed, and made a personal inspection of the property in the North Saanich district. He found that the stables had been stripped of their stalls and stanchions, and that all the windows and doors of the barn were missing and woven wire fencing was gone.

On another occasion, Mr. Hodgson stated in his affidavit, he visited the premises and finding the basement door unlocked, entered. As he was going up the steps, he was met by Mr. Taylor who, he says, threatened him. "I at once left the premises without waiting for any argument, physical or verbal," the record states.

FINDS LOST ITEMS

Mr. Hodgson says he next visited the new home of Mrs. Rider. She was not there, but the goods, removed from the ranch home, were. Mr. Hodgson says he saw piled against the house the bath tub, "a very elaborate and valuable one," and other plumbing fixtures. Mr. Hodgson further sets out that he found stalls and stanchions from the mortgaged ranch in the stables used on Mrs. Rider's property, also windows, doors, chicken wire and fencing together with several of the smaller houses which he declares came from the ranch, of which he is the holder of the mortgage.

SECURES AN ORDER

"I am apprehensive that, unless an injunction is granted, the defendants may utterly strip the properties, destroy the buildings and the fences thereon." The injunction was granted.

"The Hodgson-Taylor" legal battle has been progressing the courts since early last Summer when action was instituted by Mr. Hodgson to recover on a judgment. At first the action was against Mr. Taylor, but the latter added eight or nine co-defendants and the hearing lasted several days.

An appeal from the decision of the Supreme Court judge who heard the case is being taken to the British Columbia Court of Appeal and may be heard at the sitting now being held at the Bastion Street courthouse.

when your feet get chilled or wet

When your feet get chilled or wet, your natural resistance is lowered. Germs in the mouth take advantage of this weakness. You begin to sniffle. Your throat gets sore. You may run a temperature. You are in for a cold. But had you used Listerine promptly, you might have escaped it.

Kills mouth germs

The moment Listerine enters the mouth, it kills disease-producing bacteria, including those associated with colds and sore throat. When expelled after the gargle, Listerine carries with it millions of germs swept from the mouth surfaces.

Because it attacks germs, Listerine protects tissue. Contrast Listerine's pleasant taste with the metallic clinging after-flavor of ordinary mouth washes. Contrast its safe action with that of harsh solutions so powerful they irritate tissue and therefore let germs in.

Fewer colds for garglers

For your own protection, during winter, late fall, and early spring months gargle twice a day with Listerine, the safe antiseptic. Tests have shown that those who gargled full strength Listerine contracted fewer colds and milder colds than those who did not gargle with it. Lambert Pharmacal Company, Toronto, Ont.

Choose Mouth Washes Carefully—Some watered—Others dangerous
Of 203 mouth washes submitted to laboratory examination, 94 were non-antiseptic, 107 could not kill germs in 3 minutes, 143 could not kill in one minute, others were so harsh they were dangerous to tissue, dozens had no deodorant effect whatever.

UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE

At the conference of the Dominion Government and Provincial Ministers now in progress at Ottawa the problem of unemployment insurance is being discussed. The attitude of the Dominion Government is that any such scheme must be contributory and devised on an acturial basis. The latter has been found impossible everywhere the scheme has been tried. If the conference at Ottawa can work out a plan that will be "actuarially sound" it will have achieved a feat that is so far credited to no other nation. Any plan could not be regarded as actuarially sound until it has weathered the storm of all kinds of economic conditions—good, bad and indifferent. Therefore, whatever may be decreed at Ottawa will be purely experimental. What is certain is that it will impose a steady and progressively increasing burden in the way of taxation.

Unemployment insurance is a tax on industry, on employment and on governmental resources. It is quite true that it offers a certain measure of security to those out of work. Its justification in this Dominion, from the political viewpoint, is found in the fact that it will distribute the cost of taking care of the unemployed by making employers and employed contributories as well as the taxpayers as a whole. That is the object of the present discussion at Ottawa. It is felt that the governments concerned cannot go on providing direct relief to the present extent, and so the desire is to bring unemployment insurance into effect. Through this means employers and employed would be taxed directly, with the government, or the taxpayers as a whole, providing a third of the insurance fund.

In reality, through unemployment insurance, as in all cases of social service there is no actual relief for the taxpayers. The sums which industry will have to provide must necessarily be collected from the consumers as a whole, which means the taxpayers. There is as well no solution for the unemployment problem in unemployment insurance. In Britain and in Germany the plan has been found actuarially unsound. It has developed into a condition where the state has to pay out much more than its one-third share. The only solution for unemployment is the provision of work and that is the task on which all energies should be concentrated.

"ORDERLY MARKETING"

The Winnipeg Free Press has experienced a change of heart. Not so long ago it was the earnest champion of the Wheat Pools. It believed in "orderly marketing." It was the exponent of the theory that as Canada was one of the great grain exporting nations it could, by a process of dictation, set the price of wheat by withholding supplies until the figure wanted was forthcoming. The stress of circumstances and the ability of countries to which Canada exported grain to do without it, probably because the money was not available for its purchase on the terms of the Wheat Pools, has led The Free Press to change its beliefs. It has executed a volte face, as is indicated by the following:

"It is just dangerous nonsense to entertain the idea that anything we can do in Canada will add to the price of our wheat in the world markets. Farmers in Western Canada, or many of them, have been for years cherishing the illusion that they could do something at home that would help the price of wheat abroad; and the idea still persists. The price in Western Canada, lamentable as it is, is in close relation to the price in other wheat-growing lands, which have to sell their surplus to an overcrowded world market. We cannot do anything to correct the situation which has been created by over-supply of wheat continued over many years by securing an increase in the selling price of our wheat in world markets; and in all our policies this hard fact should be accepted. Not to do so is simply to batter our heads once more against a stone wall."

EDUCATION AND THE TAXPAYER

The word education carries with it a certain indefinable charm. It is a word to conjure with. Anyone who doubts its magic power should examine the statistical tables which mark our educational activities. Men and women to the number of 68,888 have charge of 2,080,949 pupils in the ordinary day schools under public control, and there are over 300,000 other young people receiving instruction in other institutions of primary, secondary, or advanced grade. In other words, 24.4 per cent of the population are in school. The expenditure on ordinary public day schools increased by 36.2 per cent during the nineteen-twenties, while enrolment increased only 15.6 per cent. This more than proportionate increase in expenditure is accounted for, according to the statistical experts, by increases in teachers' salaries, increased accommodation, improvement in equipment, and maintenance.

These figures are impressive. It is a far cry from the little old schoolhouse and the modest three R's, which formed the prosiac but highly effective stock-in-trade of the old-time schoolmaster, to the spacious, comfortable, and even luxurious classrooms, libraries, gymnasiums and playing fields of modern youth, and their greatly expanded courses of study presided over by staffs proportionate in number and in variety of professional skill and equipment. It is within the knowledge of everyone who has observed the growing cost of education in recent years that very few men in public life have had the courage to risk their personal popularity by refusing their support to proposals for increased school expenditures. The activities of enthusiastic school officials, supervisors, directors and organizers, as well as of voluntary educational associations, directed towards an educational objective have achieved many things at the expense of ratepayers, who have been too indolent to count the cost. Prompted thereto by the conviction that the public cannot possibly have too much of a good thing, the enthusiasts mobilized their forces and marched onward, like the Ironsides of old, with the zeal of crusaders and the precision of machines.

The Minister of Education has undertaken the difficult task of reducing educational costs and his plans have been discussed in the press. A Vancouver paper has recently argued at some length that that city is entitled to better treatment than that which it will receive under the new method of distributing the Government grants. In effect the argument amounts to this: That some years ago Vancouver embarked upon a policy of expenditure for expensive junior high schools and a very expensive technical school, and is entitled on this account to special consideration.

It is an odd kind of argument. Unwarranted extravagance in spending public money obtained by mortgaging the future has been one of the principal causes of our present economic plight. Other British Columbia cities, though not entirely guiltless in this respect, have exhibited a certain amount of restraint in entering upon educational experiments. The Vancouver paper wants Vancouver's extravagance counted unto it for righteousness.

COLLAPSE OF STATE OWNERSHIP

Political history is strewn with the wrecks of experiments in state ownership. One of the latest is the collapse of the nitrate combine in Chile. It had a brief and inglorious existence. It was formed in 1931 by Government decree and known as the Cosach. The nitrate industry was formerly one of Chile's chief sources of income. It was, moreover, a source of considerable revenue to the state because of the export tax. The prosperity of the nitrate industry in Chile commenced to decline with the manufacture of artificial nitrates in Germany. The Cosach was brought into existence through governmental interference in the hope of restoring the industry.

Under the Cosach the Government dispensed with the export tax. It took 50 per cent of the stock of the combine which was an amalgamation of thirty-six different firms. The nitrate market, largely due to depression, grew worse and worse. The question of making a profit disappeared. The loss lost year was $13,380,000. Now the Government combine is in liquidation, a process which is expected to occupy two years. Thereafter the firms which comprised the combine will resume individual trading, and the likelihood is, as economic conditions improve, that the industry will again regain a foothold and be profitable to both the Government and the shareholders.

The City of Montreal in its desire to raise new revenue is talking of imposing an income tax of $1.35 per $100. Before it could impose such a tax, sanction would have to be secured from the Provincial Legislature. There is little likelihood of such permission being granted. Premier Taschereau is opposed to any additional taxation; he is still more strongly opposed to a dual income tax.

It is essential to the British Empire that it continue to observe the sacredness of contracts. That doctrine is the pillar of prestige and of credit. It was in preservation of the sacredness of contracts that Britain paid her latest instalment to the United States. The word default is not found in the lexicon of honor.

The price of wheat has recovered nearly eight cents from the low reached on December 16 last. The total stores in elevators of the country is now 237,760,000 bushels, apart from farmers' holdings. The upward trend of price, coupled with a heavy export demand, are favorable factors in the recovery taking place in the country.

A LIMIT TO LICENCE

Some observations very much to the point were made yesterday by Mr. Justice Charles in passing sentence of two years' imprisonment on Sidney Ellis, chairman of the Communist organization known as the National Unemployed Workers' Movement. The case recalled that of Walter Hannington, who, a month ago, was sentenced for having incited the police to disaffection on the occasion of the unemployed "marchers'" demonstration. Ellis, it was shown, had written letters to Hannington and another advising them to stir up the "marchers" to acts of violence.

The judge, in passing the maximum sentence, declared that it was "far, far too short." The result, he said, of these Moscow-directed activities had already been to cause disorder and damage in various centres. It is well that Ellis and his like should learn that, wide as is the liberty of expression allowed by our law, incitement to disorder is a crime, and anyone who advises such incitement is himself guilty of it.—London Daily Telegraph.

Note and Comment

The golden opportunity
Is never offered twice; seize then the hour
When fortune smiles and duty points the way;
Nor shrink aside to 'scape the spectre Fear—
Nor pause though Pleasure beckon from her bower—
But bravely bear thee onward to the goal.
—Old Play.

Our gifted and versatile contemporary, Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George, has given publicity to extremely gloomy views upon various subjects. Mr. George says there is little hope for the world in an economic sense, and less hope for the Liberal Party of Great Britain in a political sense. He draws a word picture of the British Liberal Party as suffering from the incurable physical malady of creeping paralysis, pours vials of scorn upon its leadership, and in characteristic Welsh style croons a requiem over its remains. But while Mr. George has abandoned all hope for the future of the Liberal Party, and although he has outlived the allotted span of the ordinary active life of man, he has not abandoned all hope for the political future of Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George.

Notwithstanding the weight of the years, he is still endowed with the abounding vitality, courage, resource (and some other qualities which need not be enumerated), which enabled him to emerge from the political ruck and become the war-time Prime Minister and pump the energy into a worn-out system which enabled it to hang on grimly and materially assist it in finally winning the war. So, although Mr. George has severed all connection with the British Liberal and Labor political parties as beneath contempt, he has not abandoned all hope of playing an important part in British public affairs. He is going to play the part of a public free lance in the belief that in the regular course of human events he may again emerge from the political ruck and play a prominent part in the salvation of the state.

Our somewhat less gifted Liberal contemporary, Rt. Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King, we see by the papers, has been delivering another characteristically obscure speech on the past and present history of Liberalism in Canada. The subject of the Liberal leader's discourse was the part his party played in cutting the galling bonds which tied this Dominion to the Mother Country. In his speech Mr. King told the Young Liberals of Quebec (when he has anything to say on that interesting subject he always goes to Quebec to say it for reasons which may not be so important as he imagines) of the sustained efforts of the leaders of the party to achieve the complete independence of Canada. The favorite word of Sir Wilfrid Laurier when he discussed the subject was "autonomy." Well, according to Mr. King, complete "autonomy" has been achieved through the efforts of the Liberal leaders of Canada. Independence, complete and absolute, was achieved at the last Imperial Conference attended by Mr. King as Prime Minister.

But, instead of going forward and reaping the full benefits of the wonderful achievement of the leaders of the Liberal Party, it appears that Canada has been taking a step backward. That retrograde movement began at the Imperial Economic Conference held at Ottawa, when Canada became tied to the apron-strings of the Mother Country in an agreement embodying the principles of preferential trade within the Empire. Mr. King wants nothing whatever to do with freer trade within the Empire. Freer trade with one-fourth of the world in point of population and more than one-fourth of the world in point of trade possibilities is altogether too insignificant for a mere politician of his tremendous economic perceptions. So he demands that the new bonds with which Canada has been bound shall be cut, and that as an independent nation, with no connection with the British Empire which need be considered, shall be free to negotiate and enter into treaties of trade and commerce with the whole world.

But surely the Liberal leader might have explained his position without obliquely hinting throughout his exposition a certain disparagement of the existing relations between Canada and the Mother Land. If Canada desires to extend the bounds of her trade beyond the confines of the British Empire, there is nothing in her agreement with Great Britain to prevent that consummation. One of the reasons for the adoption of the principle of more intimate trade relations within the Empire was that Great Britain and all the Dominions had found that all foreign nations had closed their markets against British products, and therefore that it appeared to be impossible to enter into trade relations which would have been equally favorable to the giver and the receiver.

The truth of the matter is that Mr. King is a victim of that most disagreeable of all mental ailments, a grouch. He is against Imperial preferential trade because he has adopted a narrow and petty view of his position. No leader of an opposition with a mind big enough and broad enough to estimate the possibilities of the future would have opposed preferential trade within the Empire simply because the fates decreed that the measure should be proposed to Parliament by the leader of the government of the day. Imperial preferential trade, as a matter of historical fact, was suggested by former leaders of the Liberal Party, and might have developed into reality but for British governments dominated by die-hard free traders. The bitterness of Mr. King is due to the fact that the Liberal Party of Canada had not the foresight to perceive or the courage to take advantage of a grand opportunity.

INFANTILE PARALYSIS

Sir,—I saw in The Colonist of a few days ago the doctor's article entitled "Infantile Paralysis Still Prevalent in Some Districts."

As my mother's four sisters were all graduate nurses and forty years ago I filed my application at the General Hospital with everything in my favor, over fifty questions correctly answered and the medical health examination easily passed, I was disappointed when told that no one under twenty-five could be admitted, and during three years of waiting I saw another course before me, my life work. However, these experiences made me observant along these lines.

It may be about six to ten years ago the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company's monthly publication contained this statement. I think these were the very words:

"Everybody knows that a teaspoonful of orange juice given to a baby every day will prevent infantile paralysis, but everybody does not know that a concoction made from orange peel will do just as well."

As many children have neither orange juice nor paralysis, I cannot understand how it could be known to prevent an attack unless there was a known tendency to an attack and it was avoided, but if there is any truth in the statement, shouldn't it be widely published so that everyone may know, especially at this time, when it is impossible for people to buy many oranges?

Since that time I never waste the skin, but boil it in plenty of water until quite soft, then drain and mash or put it through a mincer, after which add equal portion of sugar and boil up as jam, taking care that it does not burn. It makes delicious orange butter. The water which was drained off is used as a beverage, diluted and sweetened to taste, or to flavor puddings, etc. If it can be spared to flavor the bread, it makes delicious wantsome-more kind of bread.

About 1918 I wrote to you about orange juice and influenza, but for some reason you did not print the letter. It was proved beyond a doubt in our home. One member of the family nearly died, but as soon as the others were gripped by the flu, they drank the juice of a dozen oranges at once, and the influenza flew away as fast as it had come—by the cheapest way, too.

ELLEN M. HOGARTH.

2350 Lee Avenue, Victoria, B.C., Jan. 13, 1933.

COAL FROM ENGLAND

Sir,—It seems to me a great pity that Alderman Williams and some members of the City Council should adopt such a short-sighted policy in regard to the importation of coal from England. Their argument is that the ships must have ballast, and that these ships carry return cargoes. The matter is summarily passed on; probably because there is no coal mine within the boundaries of Victoria city.

It would be well for the council to realize the ties that bind it to the Province of British Columbia—how can they lose sight of them?—ties which affect each citizen, financially as well as from a country standpoint.

Last Summer the mines in Nanaimo often worked only two days a week. Many miners received fortnightly pay cheques of about ten dollars. If the market is interfered with this year, the prospects are even more dreary. Now, how does that affect the Victoria City Council?

The infringement on the market of Nanaimo coal will result in greater unemployment there. This will mean more men for the Provincial Government to help with relief. Add to this the loss in revenue to the Provincial Government, due to a general unemployment condition in Nanaimo—for the mines are the chief industry—and what will the result be?

A city is in need of provincial aid—with the resultant additional call on the taxpayers of the province. There is a further increase in the gasoline tax, the income tax, the "super-tax"—which will apply in part directly to the people represented by our City Council. Further, the coal industry of Nanaimo is a province-wide institution in regard to rail transportation, tug and barge transportation, newspaper and billboard advertising and the work of the retailer.

And for compensation—"the ships carry return cargoes." What will these cargoes be? Certainly not British Columbia timber. The closed sawmills give mute testimony to Russia's gain and the province's loss in that respect. What else is there from this province to make up for crippling of an industry? Fish? Russia again steps in. Grain? Yes. Grain from the Prairies, which affects us chiefly from a storage viewpoint; not from a farming.

It would be interesting to check up on the origin of the idea of "carrying coals to Newcastle." Here, surely, is a literally parallel case.

If Alderman Williams lived eighty miles from Newcastle, would his attitude still be, "Let the people of Newcastle worry; the rest of us—we're English?"

I have no quarrel with the idea of trading with the Mother Country. More power to that same idea! But I do resent what seems a very unneighborly act on the part of our council in passing by so casually a matter which may concern them so vitally. It will be interesting to read the comments and watch the actions of Alderman Williams when the time for the Home Products Exhibition comes round.

I do realize that the matter has not been entirely disposed of, but "referred to committee." I would wish this letter to be free from prejudice—it being merely my intention to point out that, as the council passed on the matter, the expression of opinion on the part of Alderman Williams that was so decidedly unfavorable to the industry of Nanaimo might be resented by some who realize the importance of the coal market not only to the people of that city but to others in the province as well.

At a big store a fussy old woman badgered the assistant and was about an hour without making a purchase from the numerous fabrics presented to her.

"On the whole," quoth the woman, "I think, after all, I want muslin."

"You certainly do, madam," said the assistant.

CULBERTSON on CONTRACT

By Ely Culbertson

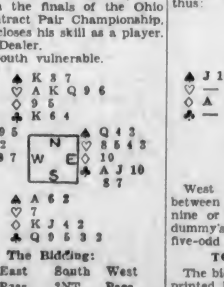

World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst

MASTERS OF BRIDGE

Mr. V. F. Boland, of Cleveland, is not only recognized as one of the master players of the Middle West, but has designed a bid which is quite popular in his home city and Northern Ohio. The bid is used in connection with the Culbertson system of bidding. It goes without saying that it does not appear to me as having either the merits of accuracy or simplicity. However, even an expert may have faulty bidding methods and still play the hands with wonderful accuracy.

Here is a hand played by Mr. Boland in the finals of the Ohio State Contract Pair Championship, which discloses his skill as a player.

North—Dealer.
North-South vulnerable.

The Bidding:

North	East	South	West
1♡	Pass	2NT	Pass
3♡	Pass	3NT	Pass
Pass	Pass

Mr. Boland was fortunate enough to get a very favorable break on the hand, but this in no sense detracts from the credit due him for the development of an interesting squeeze, which netted him two extra tricks and, incidentally, the championship.

West's opening lead was the diamond seven, and Mr. Boland won with the knave. His next step in the development of the hand was to lead the club deuce, and the fact that all five clubs, including three honors, were bunched against him in the East hand was immediately disclosed. West won this trick with the club ace and returned the club knave, but South declined to win, and East found himself in a hopeless position. The return of either a club, a spade or a heart promised South the same development. As a matter of fact, East led the spade three, and the trick was won with the ace in the closed hand. Now five hearts were taken, upon which South discarded three diamonds and a spade, and then a club was led from dummy. East played the seven and South won with the nine.

South had been compelled to discard a spade to hold his three clubs, and at this point South, when he led the club queen, developed a squeeze on West. The situation was thus:

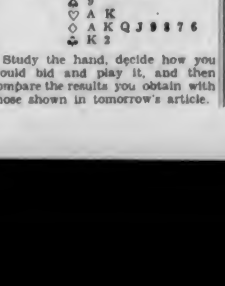

West was compelled to choose between establishing the diamond nine or a spade, making both of dummy's spades good. As a result, five-odd were made on the hand.

TOMORROW'S HAND

The bidding and play of the hand printed below will be discussed tomorrow:

South—Dealer.
Both sides vulnerable.

Study the hand, decide how you would bid and play it, and then compare the results you obtain with those shown in tomorrow's article.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

(From The Daily British Colonist of January 19, 1883)

Puget Sound Explosion—The Josephine, a small steamboat, plying between Seattle and Skagit River, blew up at Port Susan, fifty miles from Seattle, killing the captain, purser, and six or eight other persons. The boiler was carrying ninety pounds of steam, according to the statement of the engineer.

Pierce Tornado (Seattle Chronicle)—The gale on the upper Sound, Tuesday night, was the most violent ever known in this section. It is estimated that damage to vessels and shipping will amount to $75,000.

City Shows Surplus—The present council shows a balance of $2,744 cash assets over liabilities. This has not occurred for many years.

Railway Amalgamation—It is reported from Montreal that a project is on foot to unite the Grand Trunk, North Shore and Rome and Watertown railways with the Richelieu and St. Lawrence Navigation companies in a general traffic combination for monopolizing all the land and water trade of the St. Lawrence.

JOHN GRANT IS AGAIN LEADER

Popular Member Re-elected President of Y.M.I. at Annual Meeting

Destinies of the Young Men's Institute during 1933 will be guided by John A. Grant, who was re-elected president of Segher's Council, No. 85, at the annual meeting held Tuesday night at the Knights of Columbus Hall. Mr. Grant gave a satisfactory report on activities during the past twelve months, and he was highly congratulated by the meeting for the way he handled affairs in 1932.

Leonard Kissinger was made first vice-president, while Charles Webb was the choice for second vice-president. Edward J. Leonard was re-elected recording secretary, and W. W. Baines was reappointed financial secretary, a position he has ably filled for the past thirty-five years. Both Messrs. Leonard and Baines were highly commended for the fine manner in which they conducted their duties during a long period of years. Harry Hartnell was chosen treasurer, and Donald Kissinger was made marshal. Joseph Nyland was elected outside sentinel and Murray Moffatt was the choice for outside sentinel.

Jack Neary was re-elected to the executive committee, and Rev. Father J. A. Gaudette was again made chaplain of the order. Before closing, reports from the financial secretary and other officers were filed, and all were adopted as satisfactory.

PARISHIONERS MEET

NANAIMO, Jan. 18.—The annual parishioners' meeting was held last evening at Cedar, with the vicar, Rev. B. E. Spurling, in the chair. M. Hill and Charles Saunders were re-elected as wardens, and Mark Rukin, Cassidy, added to the present committee. Mrs. O. D. Roberts again undertook to lead the choir.

SAYS INFLATION IS NOT REMEDY

Bank of Toronto President Urges Better Regulation of Production

TORONTO, Jan. 18 (CP).—"Inflation is not the remedy for depressed prices," declared W. G. Gooderham, president of the Bank of Toronto, at the annual meeting of the institution today.

"If the world is over-producing certain commodities even for normal times, and I think this is the situation, price recovery can be brought about only through better regulation of production to world needs," he said.

"Inflation in whatever degree would not add a penny to the price of our wheat in Liverpool, and I am afraid any apparent advantage in converting the pound into depreciated dollars would prove quite illusory. On the other hand, the mere threat of a departure from sound money would seriously damage the credit of the country, both abroad and at home, and cause a flight from the Canadian dollar, the harmful consequence of which is not difficult to foresee.

"The placing of an embargo on the free shipment of gold is quite another thing and is a sound measure at this time," Mr. Gooderham said.

George Kidd, Vancouver, was elected a director of the bank.

"Hard-working little wife you've got, Bill," said a traveler to the small shopkeeper, watching the wife's busy activities in the shop.

"My word, yes," replied her husband, "I only wish I had a couple more like 'er!"

THINKS MARKET IS INCREASING

R. Hague Believes Canada Due for Greater Lumber Sales in Australia

Belief that Canada should find an increasing market for her lumber in Australia, since the soft-woods now being planted there were not indigenous to the country and would require thirty or forty years before maturity, was expressed by R. H. Hague, during an address at the first of this season's meetings of the Round Table Club, Tuesday night.

Mr. Hague, who is a former resident of Australia, now living in Alberni, showed an intimate knowledge of that Dominion, and dealt with its geography, history, social and economic conditions, products and manufactures. He presented to his audience a picture of the island continent which, he stated, was one of the oldest parts of the earth, with a coastal area having a rainfall greater than London, and an interior which, for the greater part, was an arid desert.

LIVE IN CITIES

More than half of the population of 6,500,000 persons live in cities, Mr. Hague said, where the State pays a bounty to producers of exports such as wine, sugar, butter and other natural products. He described a country run so badly, politically, that until recent years it was customary to borrow money to pay interest on borrowed money.

The speaker praised the loyalty of Australians to Great Britain, and their determination to trade with the Mother Country, Canada, and other parts of the Empire, and cited the stringent policy of excluding all immigrants other than whites. The State collects both State and Commonwealth income taxes, he continued, and no tax is levied on money brought into the country either as capital or income.

SET WAGE SCALE

State and Federal tribunals also stipulate the number of hours of labor which each employee will put in during a week, and the wages he shall be paid, Mr. Hague declared.

He stated that Australia was now "putting her house in order," politically and economically, and was adopting such measures of economy as the abolition of compulsory military training, reduction in her naval expenses, and disposal of state-owned coastal shipping. She was starting to build up from the bottom, and there were signs that the influence of the unions and the politicians, who were responsible for the very high cost of labor, was on the wane.

Court of Appeal

Victoria Sittings

Lineham (A.) vs. Holden (R.)—In this case appelant, a medical practitioner, claimed payment of his fees for professional services rendered to respondent's wife.

The action had been dismissed in the County Court of Vancouver. The judge held that where a wife is living apart from her husband, she is presumed, in the absence of proof, to have no authority to pledge his credit. In such a case the onus of proof is upon the plaintiff. Where the parties are living apart under a decree of judical separation, the wife has no power unless expressly authorized to pledge her husband's credit, but if alimony has been ordered to be paid, and is in arrears, he is liable for necessaries supplied for her use.

Counsell for appellant argued that a married woman is presumed to be able to pledge her husband's credit for necessaries, even if the person giving credit is not aware she is married. The trial judge had found that the services rendered to the wife were necessary. The fact that she had consulted a chiropracter at the same time was therefore, immaterial.

It was alleged on behalf of the respondent that in any event he had forbidden his wife to incur indebtedness on his behalf.

The Court of Appeal reserved judgment. G. S. Wismer for appellant, Hon. R. L. Maitland, K.C. for respondent.

BRITISH TOUR WAS ENJOYABLE

B. I. Johnson Gives Local Kiwanians Some Impressions Gained During Visit to Britain

During his trip through the British Isles, B. I. Johnson, of this city, became deeply impressed with the comfortable apartments which were being erected in many places there, and which were being made available at cheap rentals. He referred to four-room bungalows which were renting for a pound a month. The opinion was brought home to him that if by means of cheap money somewhat similar conditions were made possible here, there might be a solution of some of the troubles that were faced.

This information was given by Mr. Johnson during an address before the Kiwanis Club, Tuesday, in which the speaker described some of the outstanding features of his trip.

Another matter he noticed was the absence of British Columbia timber, as far as he could see, on hand in the shipbuilding yards and elsewhere. It seemed a shame that there should not be a trade developed, said the speaker, when there was such an abundance of timber of highest quality here. Mr. Johnson felt that surely there was something that could be done by those interested to go after this avenue of trade.

ATTRACTIVE PLACES

After describing the places visited, he expressed the opinion that for one who wished to enjoy a holiday, there was no place that could excel the British Isles. In this connection he said no day needed to pass without the opportunity being afforded a lover of sport to see a game of football. There was also the opportunity open for golf everywhere. While Mr. Johnson was in Scotland, he had the chance of playing on the world-famous St. Andrews course.

The speaker told of the trip across the American continent and through Eastern Canada, which was made by automobile. In spite of all the enjoyable features that were encountered by him in Great Britain, Mr. Johnson said he was pleased to get back to Victoria again. There was no place that could surpass this city and its environs.

TO VISIT SEED FAIR

The South Saanich Farmers' Institute will not hold its monthly meeting on Thursday. The members will visit the Victoria Seed Fair. All those wishing to go are asked to meet at the Temperance Hall, East Saanich Road, at 7 o'clock, where transportation will be available.

FLAVOUR—that's what made Maxwell House Dixie's most popular coffee. It is that same famous flavour which has made Canadian housewives prefer Maxwell House to any other coffee.

And it is such good coffee! The blend—exquisitely flavoured, rich and mellow. Its aroma coaxes the appetite.

All this flavour is kept for you! The exclusive Vita-Fresh process of packing protects the coffee by removing the air inside the tin that robs other coffee of its flavour. Only Maxwell House Coffee is Vita-Fresh packed.

JACK OAKIE IN DRAMATIC ROLE

"Uptown New York" Opens Today for Three-Day Showing at Capitol Theatre

Jack Oakie, the hard-boiled product of New York pavements with a heart as big as Broadway, appears in his new picture, "Uptown New York," at the Capitol Theatre today.

Oakie steps out in the World Wide picture, "Uptown New York," in an entirely new characterization and proves that he can do real dramatic roles as well as his customary wise-cracking characters.

Playing a sympathetic part is hard work for an actor classified by public opinion as a dramatic actor, but for an actor classified as a comedian it triples in complications. The tragedy in a comedian's life is being laughed at when he is not trying to be funny, and it is often his downfall when he tries to step out of classification. Jack Oakie in "Uptown New York," as Eddie, is one of the examples that prove a comedian can play dramatic roles effectively.

"The Devil Is Driving," the second feature, is a finely constructed melodrama which fully lives up to its unusual title and to the quality of its cast, headed by such players as Edmund Lowe, Wynne Gibson, Lois Wilson and Allan Dinehart.

On the stage, Jackie Merkle, the miraculous five-year-old wonder child, will continue to mystify the audience with the display of his amazing powers.

EMPIRE THEATRE Willy Forst, Geza von Bolvary and Robert Stolz are reunited in "The Theft of the Mona Lisa" in the capacities which they exercised for the production of "Two Hearts in Waltz Time," the sensational success which enjoyed tremendous popularity at the Europa Theatre, New York, for more than a year. "The Theft of the Mona Lisa," which will show at the Empire Theatre for the last times today, is in English dialogue, and travels from France to Italy.

DOMINION THEATRE Clara Bow, the most emotional of all screen stars, has never been pictured in an entirely emotional role. Yet in "Call Her Savage," her initial Fox starring picture, now playing at the Dominion Theatre, she discards the flapperisms that made her famous, portrays a tensely-dramatic role and depicts the rich emotionalism of mother love. Seen opposite the famous red-head in the romantic male lead is Gilbert Roland.

Columbia Offers 'One Way Passage'

William Powell and Kay Francis met one of the hardest problems of their long and varied careers in portraying the romance of "One Way Passage," their latest Warner Bros.' picture, which comes to the Columbia Theatre today.

Their story in "One Way Passage" is that of a man and woman deeply enamored of each other whose sacred love is doomed to be unconsummated. Portrayal of their parts required perfect acting in order to convey the depth of feeling between them while conveying to the audience at the same time the utter hopelessness of their case.

Powell and Miss Francis are supported in "One Way Passage" by an all-star cast, including Aline MacMahon, Frank McHugh, Warren Hymer, Frederick Burton, Douglas Gerrard and Herbert Mundin. Also on the same bill is Ken Maynard in "Dynamite Ranch."

Comedian Returns After Retirement

Some years ago Douglas MacLean, while at the peak of his popularity as a comedian, suddenly retired from the screen. He sought new worlds to conquer. That he has done so is the unanimous opinion of critics who preview his story, Radio Pictures' comedy, "Caught Plastered." The film, with Bert Wheeler, Robert Woolsey and Dorothy Lee in the leading roles, is scheduled to open at the Playhouse Theatre today.

"Caught Plastered" is a heart-interest story with hilarity combined, strange bedfellows, yet so beautifully done that comedy is always stressed while the plot retains audience interest.

The comedians gambol ludicrously into good samaritanism, save an old lady from the poorhouse, put a bankrupt business on its feet, and foil the plot of a suave villain.

"TRAILING THE KILLER" AT EMPIRE TOMORROW

The sensational film "Trailing the Killer," reaches the Empire Theatre today for the week's showing, which begins tomorrow.

Tremendous interest has been aroused by this production, which marks a new era in filmdom. One is taken from the comfort of civilization into the haunts of the wild, where primitive passions hold sway, and one realizes the fact that animals pass through similar stages of emotion as do humans.

These animals, in fact, depict a story just as though they were humans. They do not talk, of course, but the sound equipment registers the outward semblance of their emotions—their snarls of rage, their cries of anguish, their whines of terror, their throaty sounds of victory when an enemy is vanquished.

ACTORS TO PRESENT G. B. SHAW'S SATIRE

George Bernard Shaw is always a test of the intelligence of any community. Victoria has definitely established its "Shaw-mindedness" by its reception, in the past, of Shavian works as presented by Maurice Colbourne and Barry Jones, on their initial visit to this city three years ago; by the deluge of requests that the popular actor-managers should present the famous Irish playwright's latest and most discussed play, "Too True to Be Good," before their return to London.

Arrangements have been definitely completed for the presentation of this extravaganza on Saturday, January 28, at the Royal.

That the present company of Messrs. Colbourne and Jones is adequately suited to the exacting roles of "Too True to Be Good" is best evidenced by the comments of Augustus Brindle, dean of Toronto critics, at the Canadian premiere of the much-debated satire to the effect that "if Colbourne and Jones production could have been seen in New York and London, some of the critics of the two continents might have had a far better opinion of the play."

TRIBUTE IS PAID BY SCHOOL BOARD

The city school board at its meeting last night paid tribute to the late Mrs. S. F. Tolmie in a vote of condolence, which will be tendered to Premier S. F. Tolmie in the form of a letter from the secretary. Both Trustee J. M. Campbell and W. C. Moresby, K.C., spoke highly of Mrs. Tolmie and of the esteem in which she was held by the community in which she had lived for so many years.

MORE SNOW IS PREDICTED HERE

Unsettled weather will continue here as a result of a low pressure area on the coast of Oregon. Traces of snow fell here yesterday and more snow and sleet were predicted last night for the next twenty-four hours by F. Napier Denison, director of the Dominion Meteorological Observatory.

Snow has fallen from Puget Sound to Oregon, while heavy rains have been experienced in California. Prairie points report colder weather, while the temperature in Victoria still hovers around the freezing point.

Yesterday the minimum temperature was 32 degrees and the maximum was 34.

PATROL VESSELS MEET AT TOFINO

West Coast Port Favored With Presence of Three Government Boats in One Day

TOFINO, Jan. 18.—No less than three different Government vessels were in port on Saturday at one time, all regular patrol ships of the West Coats in the different services in which they are employed.

The fishery protection cruiser Malaspina, Captain A. M. Henderson, was here with J. F. Tait, supervisor of fisheries for the district of Vancouver Island. The Indian Department West Coast cruiser Duncan Scott called in with Indian Agent E. Frost and other officials of his department aboard, while also in port was the Provincial Police patrol boat P.M.L.-7, in charge of Corporal A. Dunbar, who has supervision of all Provincial Police work of the West Coast beyond Fort Alberni and as far as Kyuquot.

While the two smaller boats proceeded on up the coast, the Malaspina remained in port overnight, the local branch of the Legion entertaining the officers and crew at a dance and social evening in its hall.

H. M. C. S. Armentieres, Commander R. Soulsby, is still on deep-sea lifesaving patrol at Bamfield, which service is maintained every Winter by this vessel and the D.G.S. Givenchey, alternating month about.

Year-Round Airship Line Between Europe And America Assured

New Service Planned to Start Next Fall—Barcelona or Seville to Be Winter Port, According to Dr. Eckener

By FREDERICK KUH
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

BERLIN, Jan. 18.—The establishment of a year-round airship line between Europe and South America now can be regarded as virtually assured, probably to begin in the Fall of 1933, according to Dr. Hugo Eckener, who has just returned from Seville and Barcelona, where, with Capt. Ernst Lehmann, he carried on negotiations for the establishment of anchor bases.

Both cities have indicated their readiness to build anchor masts, and Barcelona is ready to construct a hangar at her own cost, so that construction can begin shortly if the projects are officially approved by the two cities, Dr. Eckener said. Construction would require six months, so that the all-year service then could begin in the Fall.

KEEP HOME PORT

It is planned to retain Friedrichshafen as the home port for all but the three Winter months, scheduling a stop at Barcelona on the southbound trip and one at Seville on the homeward journey. For the three Winter months the home port would be in Spain, either Barcelona or Seville, whichever city finally decides to build the hangar, Dr. Eckener said.

Zeppelin officials began figuring seriously on a year-round service as soon as the Zeppelin completed the last Fall flight to Rio de Janeiro. After a detailed check of the traffic figures, officials were confident that if the Graf could average the same revenue load on every trip as on the last, the year-round service would be possible.

On her last trip, the Graf carried eighteen pay passengers from Brazil and took on three more at Seville. She carried 160 kilograms of post. Zeppelin officials figure that with an average of sixteen pay passengers and 200 kilograms of post each trip the line can become independent. With Seville and Barcelona on the schedule it is expected that more revenue, passengers, post and freight, automatically will be attracted by the convenience of a West European terminus and the lower fares.

RATES HIGHER

While the Graf's passenger rates are higher than first-class steamer fares, officials believe that the saving in time will make it attractive to enough business men and tourists to guarantee a profit.

The appeal of riding in the Zeppelin is a strong factor. Officials point out that on the two occasions when the flights were extended from Pernambuco to Rio de Janeiro the ship virtually was sold out both ways. The ship carried thirty passengers from Rio to Pernambuco on the last flight.

The bookings to Germany also picked up immediately the schedule was extended southward.

"Matt" Peasley Has Shoreside Billet

ABERDEEN, Wash., Jan. 18.—Captain Ralph "Matt" Peasley, hero of the famous Cappy Ricks stories and one of the most widely known sailing ship masters of the West Coast, has been seated as commissioner of the port of Grays Harbor. He succeeds R. J. Ultican.

C. N. Wilson, commissioner for the Montesano district, was re-elected president of the commission, and Captain Peasley was named secretary. Frank H. Lamb, Hoquaim, is the third member.

Smashed Up in Windstorm

AFTER conquering many a storm during its thirteen months' cruise from Australia to California, the eighteen-foot sloop of Fred Rebell arrived in San Pedro Harbor only to be broken up in a windstrom shortly after. The photograph shows the sloop on its arrival in the California port.

First Civil Aerial Medical Service Is Tried in Australia

"Flying Doctors" Respond to Calls From Remote Parts of Dominion or Furnish Advice Over Wireless Telephone

Far in the interior of the Australian continent the world's first civil aerial medical service cares for the health of the inhabitants of a territory greater in area than Germany, Austria, Switzerland and Denmark combined.

Established in May, 1928, at Cloncurry, Queensland, and planned from the first to work in conjunction with radio, the service has spread a mantel of safety for white men and natives which has gone far to improve the general health of the populace, and to ease conditions of life in regions that are still primitive and widely removed from communication with large centres of civilization, except through the medium of the flying machine. Aviation owns no finer distinction than the lives saved and the misery averted by the efforts of the Australian "flying doctors."

Something of the work done in the last four years was explained in London the other day to an audience of flyers and medical men by Dr. W. D. Walker, an Adelaide physician, who has spent several years in the Australian interior. He told how the airplane moved in response to urgent calls for help which were received at the base by wireless. Small and inexpensive radio transmitters, deriving power from pedal-operated generators, were evolved for distribution among the more isolated homesteads. Their range is 600 miles; thus equipped the most remote settler knows that he can summon immediate help should he or his family require it. At first the family operator was obliged to learn Morse, but a recent improvement enables messages to be transmitted automatically into Morse and sent out by simply tapping a keyboard similar to that of a typewriter.

CARRIES FIVE

Messages received at the central station are retranslated. Medical advice is sent back by wireless telephone, or, if the case calls for more urgent treatment, a reply goes out that the "flying doctor" is on his way. White sheets spread on the ground, and the smoke of a fire are employed to indicate the nearest safe landing place to the invalid's home, and the direction of the wind.

In addition to the pilot, the airplane used at present is able to carry doctor, nurse, patient (should removal to hospital be necessary), and one other individual. Soon a larger aircraft may be acquired for the work, and an anaesthetist and complete surgical unit airborne, in addition to the load now carried. Further important future developments of the system include the aerial survey of large areas not yet charted, and the provision of more landing fields and radio stations.

In the first year of the service, Dr. St. Vincent Welch flew no less than 20,000 miles to attend to 255 patients, and held forty-two consultations in twenty-six different centres. Year by year the work has expanded until now four "flying doctors" share the task between them. Much of it is naturally associated with childbirth; the airplane has lifted from many women the terrors of maternity without skilled assistance and proper attention. Ultimately the organizers hope to establish a complete national service, provided with a number of fully-equipped base hospitals which will work together to cover all of the sparsely-settled and remote regions of the vast continent.

He was notoriously rich, but at the same time notoriously mean. He had, however, made his will in favor of his only relative, a nephew.

"I hear your nephew is going to get married," remarked a friend one day. "I think that on that occasion you ought to do something to make him happy."

"I will," replied the miser sourly. "I'll get my housekeeper to send him a wire telling him I'm dangerously ill."

Canadian Winner Loading Logs and Lumber for Japan

To commence loading a full cargo of British Columbia lumber for Japan, Ss. Canadian Winner, recently purchased by the United Ocean Transport Company, Limited, a prominent Japanese shipping concern, moved to McMillan's booming ground, Burrard Inlet, yesterday morning. The vessel is completely manned by Japanese seamen brought to Vancouver by the Ss. Somedono Maru.

A total of 3,600,000 feet of logs and lumber are to be stowed aboard at Vancouver, New Westminster and Vancouver Island ports. The agents expect to get the ship away about January 28. Ss. Canadian Ranger, purchased by the same interests, will go on berth to load a similar cargo early in February. A Japanese crew to man this vessel is expected at the Mainland port shortly.

DRIFTED ON TREE TRUNK

Pahang Malay Rescued After Floating in Ocean for Six Days

That truth is stranger than fiction is again exemplified by the remarkable story of a Pahang Malay who was saved by a kindly-disposed Providence after six days and nights in the sea near Singapore. When picked up by the Ss. Carnarvonshire, bound for Hongkong, recently, he had drifted some 800 miles from Singapore on the root of a tree.

A lean, wiry man, as are the majority of his race, Sahib Bin Ahmet, forty-two years of age, told, on his arrival at Hongkong, an amazing story of physical endurance which had enabled him for almost a week to withstand the severe exposure, bobbing like a cork, in the heavy monsoon-blown seas, and clinging to the trunk of the cocoanut tree which had accompanied him out to sea.

He was working, he stated, in a cocoanut plantation, running down to the water's edge at Pahang. He was collecting cocoanuts shaken off a tree, when a sudden hurricane sprang up, and lifted him bodily off his feet.

DROPPED IN WATER

He found himself carried through the air out to sea, and was dropped into the water together with other objects. He blindly grasped one of these, and I' proved to be an uprooted cocoanut tree.

To this he tenaciously clung, while the tree was carried farther and farther out to sea. The next six days and nights were for him a period of keen suffering, of hunger and exposure, with hopes momentarily buoyed up by the sight of passing steamers. Three such passed him in the night without his being able to attract their attention.

The tramp raised his hat to the young woman who had opened the door in answer to his knock.

On seeing the wayfarer the trim young maid was about to close the door abruptly when the other spoke.

"I am no ordinary beggar," he said proudly. "I was at the front—"

"You at the front?" interrupted the maid, glancing suspiciously at his rounded shoulders.

"I was," declared the tramp, "but I couldn't make anyone hear, so I came round to the back."

COAST LINER BOUND SOUTH

Ruth Out—Maquinna In—Dagfred Loading Lumber —Brandanger Away

Sailing for San Francisco and Wilmington, the Pacific Steamship Lines Ss. Ruth Alexander left Rithet Piers at midnight yesterday. The coast liner arrived from Seattle at 10 o'clock to embark Island and Mainland passengers going South.

Among the travelers boarding the Ruth here were Captain J. M. N. Hodgins, Mrs. Margaret McDonald, Douglas McDonald, George Young, Mrs. Melinda Dix, Miss Ida M. Bowden, Miss Laura J. Bowden, S. J. Waggaman, and Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Ferguson.

From Port Alice and ports on the West Coast of Vancouver Island, the Ss. Princess Maquinna, of the B.C. Coast Service fleet, docked at the Belleville Street piers of Canadian Pacific Steamships early yesterday afternoon, bringing passenger and freight for the port.

CAPE HORN AWAY

Completing loading lumber cargo here, the British freighter Cape Horn sailed for Liverpool yesterday afternoon, taking about 200,000 feet from Victoria. Docking at Ogden Point about the same time as the Cape Horn pulled out, the Norwegian freighter Dagfred is now taking on lumber cargo for Japan. The Dagfred is loading 300,000 feet, and is completing her British Columbia cargo here. The next lumber ship due to load here will be the American freighter Golden Cloud, which is scheduled to arrive at Ogden Point Tuesday next, to load for Australia.

Floated out of the Government drydock at Esquimalt at 6 o'clock yesterday evening, the freighter Brandanger, which had been undergoing overhauling by Yarrows Limited, left immediately for Powell River to load paper for east coast of South America ports. The Brandanger will make the circuit of South America, loading for west and east coast, cutting out transit of Panama Canal. She will proceed to the Atlantic via the Strait of Magellan.

EMMA IN TONIGHT

From California ports, the Pacific Steamship Lines Ss. Emma Alexander is due to arrive alongside of Rithet Piers at 10 o'clock this evening. The Emma has passengers and cargo for the port, and will proceed to Seattle at midnight.

Among transportation men visiting in Victoria yesterday were T. E. Nerlan, general agent, passenger department of the New York Central Railway, of Seattle, and Frank Lefeaux, passenger representative of the Cunard Steamship Line at Vancouver.

"Jones is a rotten sort of a chap. I asked him to lend me five pounds for a few days and he absolutely refused."

"My dear fellow, this club's full of men like that. I'm one of them."

CAPTAINCY FOR NAVAL OFFICER

Commander P. W. Nelles Is First Canadian to Attain Rank in R.C.N.

OTTAWA, Jan. 18.—Commander Percy Walker Nelles, whose promotion to rank of captain was recently announced by the Department of National Defence, is the first officer of Canadian birth to attain that distinction in the Royal Canadian Navy. The young officer, who left last week for England to take a course of training in connection with his new responsibilities, was born forty years ago at Niagara-on-the-Lake, son of Brigadier-General C. M. Nelles, C.M.G. Starting at the age of sixteen as a Canadian naval cadet, Nelles secured his early training on the gunboat Canada, the Niobe and the Dreadnaught. During the war he served on the cruisers Suffolk and Antrim. In 1917 he was appointed flag lieutenant to Admiral Sir Charles Kingsmill.

While serving in 1929 on H.M.S. Dragon in South American waters his commander died and Nelles took over as acting captain. Political unrest in South America at that time was causing considerable anxiety to British and Canadian interests and the tact and zeal of the young naval commander while in those waters earned him high praise from consular authorities and the Admiralty.

Recently Commander Nelles was in charge of the Halifax naval station.

Musical Art Society's Programme Enjoyed

Mrs. W. E. H. Godson, Mrs. S. C. Beals and Miss Kathleen Bancroft Appear in January Recital at Shrine Hall—Audience Shows Appreciation

The audience at the Victoria Musical Art Society's afternoon programme at the Shrine Hall yesterday wondered why the opening number was not announced on the stroke of 3 o'clock, according to schedule, and the explanation came when Mrs. W. A. Jameson, the president, stepped forward and announced that the delay had been intentional and asked the audience to stand in silent tribute to the memory of the late Mrs. S. F. Tolmie, whose funeral took place at the time of the recital, and whose loss will be felt very keenly by members of the society.

CLEVER VIOLINIST

The programme was a short one, Mrs. W. E. H. Godson, Mrs. C. S. Beals and Miss Kathleen Bancroft, a sister of Mrs. Beals, being the artistes of the afternoon. Mrs. C. E. McNeill's artistry as an accompanist added to the enjoyment of the programme, which began with a violin solo by Miss Bancroft, who played the second movement (adagio) from the "Concerto in G Minor," by Bruch. There is warmth of tone in the playing of this young artist, which should develop strongly as she matures, her very youth inspiring a clean well-cut rounding of phrase and flexibility which was particularly appealing. In her two last numbers, "Gavotte" (Rameau) and "Tambourine" (Gossec) the lighter mood was given expression, and the applause of the audience was responded to by a delightful encore by Gossec. Mrs. Beals lent adequate support as accompanist for the violinist, giving a thoroughly artistic performance.

There was a wealth of sincerity, intelligence and interpretative ability in the playing of Mrs. Beals, the pianiste, whose brilliant rendering of the "G Minor Ballade," by Chopin, was followed by another Chopin number as encore. Though a comparative newcomer to Victoria musical circles, Mrs. Beals is now well established in the affections of local audiences.

Mrs. Godson was evidently a favorite with her audience, and chose as her first number the familiar aria from "Roberto Il Diavolo," "Roberto, o tu che adoro" in Italian, and her English group gave still more pleasure and included "The Morning Wind" (Gena Branscombe), "The Kerry Dance" (J. L. Molloy) and "Piper June" (Molly Carew). Mrs. Godson's accompaniments were played very sympathetically by Mrs. C. E. McNeill. As an encore she sang the captivating little French song "Un jour Suzon" (Pessaro). The programme was arranged by Mrs. Harry Johns.

Beautiful bouquets were presented to each of the artistes at the conclusion of the programme.

Member of Alumnae Is Given Honor

A most delightful interlude to the tea arranged yesterday afternoon by the Jubilee Hospital Alumnae, in honor of Mrs. W. A. Chambers, occurred when Mrs. W. H. Bullock-Webster, first graduate of the Jubilee Hospital, presented Mrs. Chambers with a life membership, expressing the appreciation of all the members for the faithful service and interest shown during her years of association with the alumnae since its formation. Mrs. Chambers will leave shortly with her family to reside in Vancouver, and she will be greatly missed by the graduate nurses.

Coupled with the life membership certificate was a charming corsage of roses and carnations. Mrs. Chambers expressed her regret at leaving Victoria and her grateful thanks for the honor bestowed upon her by the alumnae.

Gives Talk Of Interest To Members

Following their newly-instituted practice of meeting to hear and discuss matters of interest in current affairs, the members of Gonzales Chapter, I.O.D.E., listened with interest to an address, the third of a series of "Empire Talks," given last evening at the home of Mrs. Walter Nichol, the regent, when Mr. Robert Baird, municipal inspector for British Columbia, gave a review of the development of the municipalities of the province and the progress made since Confederation.

Questions of finance and reasons for high taxation were dealt with by Mr. Baird, whose views, based upon years of experience and careful study, were of great value to the members. In conclusion Mr. Baird gave a review of the history of British Columbia, commencing with the incorporation of New Westminster in 1860, including the incorporation of Vancouver and the coming of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

The growth of the province and the gradual incorporation of small towns throughout the country revealed to the members a side of Empire development which has hitherto been given little consideration, and the discussion which followed the address showed the keen interest of the members. Mrs. Nichol expressed the appreciation of the chapter to Mr. Baird, and at the conclusion of the address served refreshments.

Mrs. Price was vice-president in 1932 and a member of the executive for four years. She also has a record of nine years on the board of directors.

Other nominees for the presidency were Mrs. Clara King, Lethbridge; Mrs. P. C. Hepburn, Elnora; Mrs. E. J. Garland, Bow River; and Mrs. F. J. Malloy, Warner. They all withdrew in favor of Mrs. Price.

This morning's session of the women's organization of the U.F.A. was devoted to consideration of the secretary's report and those of constituency conveners. The secretary revealed the first membership decrease since 1927, which was attributed to financial conditions. Membership was placed at 1,973 with twelve new locals organized during the year.

City Temple Silver Tea Is Successful

Despite the flurry of snow yesterday afternoon, a most interested and happy gathering attended the silver tea held by the ladies of the City Temple, in the social hall of the church.

The varied entertainment was appreciated, Rev. Dr. Clem Davies acting as chairman. The items on the programme included a hatbox dance and song by Miss Sheila Grice; soprano solos by Miss Lily Hunt; Mexican dance by Miss Eileen Chislette; contralto solos by Madame Scott Burritt; piano selections by Mr. Eric Edwards; Irish jig, by Miss Kathleen Stromkins; "The Song of the Saw," by Mr. Frank Merrifield; song and dance, by Miss Margaret Welch; accordion selections, by Mrs. Evelyn Holt; tap dance, by Misses Nancy White and Beatrice Stromkins; and waltz clog, by Miss Frances Merrifield. Accompanists were Mrs. Grace Deaville and Madame Scott Burritt.

Refreshments were served by the Ladies' Auxiliary, under the convenership of Mrs. Clarke. The tables were very prettily decorated by Miss Herd and her committee.

Name Committee To Plan Concert

A special committee of the Junior Musical Arts has been selected to take charge of the details of arranging for the concert to be given at the Shrine Hall on Friday, February 3, by Smythe Humphries, violinist, and Eileen Parker, elocutionist. The committee comprises Miss Joyce Adams (president), Misses Alison Mitchell, Mary Haynes, Margaret Pringle, Betty Dorman, Grace Cann, Helen Winn, and Messrs. Leslie Wicklow, Carl Benn, Charles Medly, Eric Edwards and Oscar King.

"Would you love my daughter as much if she had no money?" demanded the parent, sternly.

"Certainly," replied the suitor.

"Then you must be mad. Get out."

CHINA IS NOT HAVING BOOM

Visitor From Orient Thinks Wrong Impression Conveyed by Magazine Article

China's conditions do not materially differ from those prevailing in other countries of the world at the present time, says V. H. Loureiro, of Shanghai, who is now in the city awaiting the sailing of the Empress liner for the Orient. He is staying at the Strathcona Hotel after returning from Europe, where he went in connection with business matters.

The visitor expressed the opinion that the article appearing in a recent copy of The Saturday Evening Post in which it was conveyed the idea that China was booming, creates a wrong impression. In his opinion it cannot be said that this is the situation there. There is in the devastated parts of Shanghai activity in rebuilding, of course, but there is difficulty experienced in the getting of capital for carrying out all the work that is desired.

Destroyed as a result of the hostilities that prevailed, the insurance is not collectable in many instances, which aggravates the situation. Mr. Loureiro, who formerly lived here and attended school in Victoria, is engaged in the fire and marine insurance business in Shanghai now. He is acquainted with P. R. M. Wallis, formerly of this city, who represents the Confederation Life Assurance Company in the Oriental city. He says Mr. Wallis is meeting success in his new field.

Junior Musical Arts Will Meet Tomorrow

For their regular monthly programme tomorrow evening at the New Thought Hall, the Junior Musical Arts will have an unusually interesting group of artists, including Miss Yvonne de Bretigny, of Toronto and formerly of Victoria, who has been studying piano for some time with Ernest Seitz, who is to appear in recital here on Monday evening; Mrs. Edith Milloy, of Vancouver, a pianist, who has just returned from two years' study abroad in Vienna, France, Belgium, England and New York, and who will give a short talk on Vienna and its composers, past and present, and Mrs. Gordon Downes, a particularly gifted artist, who will give some dramatic and humorous sketches.

Two members of the Junior Musical Arts will also contribute numbers, Miss Doris Le Page, violinist, and Isabel Crawford, vocalist.

As this is a rather special programme, a reception committee, composed of Miss Grace Gann and Leslie Wicklow, will welcome the guests.

Anuual Meeting Held By Parksville W.I.

The annual meeting of the Parksville Women's Institute was held in the Parish Hall. Minutes of the last annual meeting were read, and a statement given of the year's work. The secretary's report showed that useful work had been done, and that the institute had been socially successful, although hampered by lack of funds. There had been two directors' and ten general meetings, with average attendance of twenty-two and a paid-up membership of thirty-one.

On educational lines there had been a talk on horticulture by Mr. Strowiger; health, by Miss McKenzie; canning, by Miss Hansard; Fall fair exhibition, by Mrs. Martingdale, and a British Columbia products advertising campaign. On the social side there had been a debate and various roll calls, an old-time party, a bridge, a dance and a birthday party. Of institute work there had been a daffodil show in aid of the Nanaimo Hospital, egg collections and jam-making for the Solarium, stall at the children's sports, helping at the football dance, pantry shower and hampers to five families, and work provided for several needy men. All the usual donations to Child Welfare, Crippled Children, F.W. Travelers' Aid, per capita and affiliation fees had been kept up, although no grant from the Government was received. The year finished with a small credit balance in the welfare fund.

The new president, Mrs. W. M. Wilcox, took the chair. A few letters were read, the most interesting being from the Tudor Rose League on inter-Empire trade.

Y.M.C.A. ACTIVITIES

The Inphydeso Club held a supper meeting on Monday night, when Maurice McGregor gave a talk on aviation and explained various phases of aeronautics.

Interest is increasing in volley ball and the "Business Men," under E. Harrison, are now practising on Wednesday nights as well as Mondays and Thursdays. Letters have been written to Vancouver, New Westminster, Bellingham, and other cities asking for matches, and several are expected to be arranged. Frank Paulding is coaching the squad.

The junior school clubs will meet on Friday in their regular weekly get-together. Mr. Rutledge will show moving pictures.

The junior intercliub basketball schedule has been drawn up, and the first game of the season will take place on Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, between the Cyclones and O.K.s. There are six teams entered in the league and keen competition is expected.

General activities at the Y.M.C.A. are going at full strength. The reading-room has been full and the ping-pong and pool tables are continually in use. Archie McKinnon is kept busy with his swimming classes and other branches of sport.

To Stage Benefit Party for Needy

Under the auspices of the Saanich Board of Trade, a military five hundred and bridge party will be held at the West Saanich Women's Institute Hall on Friday, commencing at 8:15 p.m. Proceeds will be given to the Saanich Welfare Association for the needy.

Tariffs have had no effect in checking imports of French mistletoe, but it is expected of patriots that they will "kiss British."

TRUSTEES PLAN CONCERT SERIES

The school board of Oak Bay intends to associate itself more actively with the actual enterprises of the school of that municipality. With this object in view, there will possibly be a number of entertainments and instructive gatherings held during the coming term in which the high school pupils will be asked to take an interest.

The proposal has been placed before members of the board by the chairman, Dr. Charles Maconachie, and has been endorsed by them. The plan is not to put additional work on the staff nor to make the gatherings that will be held periodically irksome to the pupils. The main idea is to bring about a closer relation between the pupils and the parents. It is suggested also that the entrance class pupils in the intermediate schools should be privileged to attend and become more or less familiar with the high school.

The question of programmes will be worked out later, but is intended that the various organizations of high school pupils shall have the opportunity of giving scope to their inclinations in arranging these programmes. The parents will be invited to these gatherings.

MONTREAL, Jan. 18 (CP).—A fast air express service across Canada is being planned by officials of Canadian Airways, Ltd., meeting here to discuss the possibilities of weaving the company's air routes into a national network.

Shipment of valuable radio and electrical equipment, drugs, hospital supplies, machine parts and other commodities required in a hurry would constitute the main business of the air express service, officials believe.

Nervous, Sleepless

Brantford, Ont.—"My nerves were all unstrung, I could hardly sleep at night and felt dull, listless, tired," said Mrs. T. Dawson of 26 Glenville Ave. "I used to get nervous headaches, too, that made me awfully miserable. I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and it quieted my nerves, I had more energy, no longer had those nervous headaches and was able to rest well at night. 'Golden Medical Discovery' certainly did me a world of good."

What Today Means

"CAPRICORN"

If January 19 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 9 a.m. to 10:20 a.m., from 5:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. and from 10 p.m. to 11:10 p.m. The danger periods are from 11 a.m. to 11:50 a.m. and from 3 p.m. to 4 p.m.

You may get a "jolt" of some kind on this January 19, and feel your little world crumbling all about you. Forces operative are uplifting, however, and you will soon right yourself. You will profit greatly by such an experience. Keep your own counsel as far as possible, and take care who you let into your confidence.

The child born on this January 19 will be inclined to be quarrelsome and at times hot-tempered. He will have to learn not to hold a grudge. With a better than average ability to bluff his way, the child will try to get along on as little work as possible in his school work. Made to realize the necessity and value of hard work, he should go far in this world.

If January 19 is your birthday, you quite possibly have a suspicious nature, never quite willing to trust anyone under any circumstances. You are inclined at times to pry into other peoples' affairs in order to appease your great curiosity. On the other hand, in regard to your own affairs you are most secretive. You even hesitate to go to others for advice lest you have to disclose any facts about yourself or your business. This unwillingness to secure the views and advice of others often leads you into making moves, both personal and business in nature, that are detrimental to your own interests.

Born on January 19, yours is not a friendly disposition. You are honest to a degree in handling the affairs of others; but in competition with others you will "strain a point" to beat the other party or to drive a hard bargain. About the members of the opposite sex, you are extremely sentimental; you are tempted to go to extremes to attract their attentions. Once married, you become a thoroughly devoted husband or wife, without an eye for anyone else. Unmarried, you are rather much of a flirt. You are a strict disciplinarian in the bringing up of your children. You make them "toe the mark" and undoubtedly they are noticed and pointed out as being model little ones.

ENGLAND WINS THIRD TEST CRICKET MATCH

Navy Wins Hayward Cup in Football League; Empress Trims Saanich

Blanks Hearts Team 4 to 0 to Capture Midweek Silverware

Two Goals in Each Half Gives Sailors Fine Win—Empress Hotel Springs Big Surprise by Chalking Up 4-3 Victory Over Saanich United—Scores Winning Goal Late in Final Half

LEAGUE STANDING

	W.	L.	D.	F.	A.	P.
Navy	5	0	2	17	0	12
Hudson's Bay	4	2	1	16	6	9
Saanich United	4	3	1	17	13	9
Hearts	1	5	1	9	17	3
Empress Hotel	1	5	1	6	27	3

Driving in a pair of markers in both halves, Navy's smart-working eleven defeated Hearts, 4 to 0, on the Heywood Avenue football field yesterday afternoon in the Wednesday Football League to capture the Hayward Cup. Empress Hotel sprang the biggest surprise of the season by scoring a goal in the last few minutes to nose out Saanich United at Beacon Hill by a 4-to-3 count. It marked the first win of the schedule for the hoteimen and came as a big shock to the followers of the suburban squad.

The sailors went through the cup competition without tasting defeat and did not have a goal scored against them, a record to be proud of. Hudson's Bay and Saanich finished in a deadlock for second place, while Hearts and Empress Hotel ended with a win and draw each to share third position. The Bays are booked to meet the sailors next week, but the match may not be played as the latter have already won the silverware. The Pendray Cup series will commence shortly and some good matches are predicted before the winners are named.

Although the Navy were minus several of their regulars, due to the ships being in the South on the annual cruise, they outplayed the Hearts from start to finish and deserved their win. Sensational goal tending by "Red" McMillan, Hearts' net custodian, featured the game. McMillan saved numerous drives ticketed for the net and turned in one of the best games seen in the league this season.

NAVY ON ATTACK

Navy took up the offensive from the first sound of the whistle and bombarded their opponents' goal with a series of strong combination attacks, but failed to beat McMillan. Bill Champion and Maurice Speller turned in good games on the back division and broke up countless attacks. Robinson, Marr, Wilson and Cosier all had chances to score, but McMillan blocked their shots in fine style. After thirty minutes the Navy got their first goal when Champion handled in the penalty area. Bruce Robinson beat McMillan with a terrific shot. Only a few minutes elapsed before the sailors increased their lead. Jimmy Cosier banging in Wilson's cross for a beautiful marker. Half time came with the Navy leading, 2-0.

Navy had the better of the play in the second half. Bert Barker, Tars' goalie, never handled a shot in this canto, as all attacks were broken up by the Navy's back division. Snow fell continually throughout the period and the field was a mantel of white when the game ended. Dave Marr put the Navy three up when he beat McMillan from close range after twenty minutes. McMillan made a beautiful save from Robinson and must have punched out at least a dozen shots. Marr tricked his way through ten minutes from time for his second tally and the Navy's last.

Johnson refereed and teams follow:

Navy—Barker, McDonald, Woods, Hutton, Roberts, Sadler, Wilson, Bennallack, Robinson, Marr and Cosier.

Hearts—McMillan, Speller, A. McBride, Hickman, M. Speller, Brown, Bryant, Preston, M. McBride and Newall.

FIRST VICTORY

In a game that was tied up three times, Empress Hotel scored the first victory of the season at Lower Beacon Hill by nosing out Saanich United 4 to 3. The game was a ragged affair throughout but was closely contested.

Kelman opened the score for Saanich after five minutes of play with a shot from outside the penalty area. United had a huge edge in this half and had the hotelmen penned up practically the whole route, but they failed to add another counter. About halfway through the half, Wilhelm deadlocked the score when he sent home a fast drive. Saanich pressed hard until the end of the half, but found Wensley and the Empress backs hard to get by.

Goals came at frequent intervals in the second session. Ward put Saanich in the lead after a few minutes, but H. Johnson tied things up again a few minutes later. Then Obee put Saanich out in front again, but H. Johnson made it 3-all shortly after.

Play veered from one end of the field to the other for some time and both teams came close to scoring. With seven minutes left to play Scott sent home the winning counter for the Empress Hotel. Hines, at outside right for Empress, was the best man on the field, and his crosses were pretty to watch.

Alcock refereed and the teams were:

Saanich United — Rowe, Wyatt, O'Connell, White, Moir, Stonier, Kelman, Love, Kennedy and Obee.

Empress Hotel—Wensley, Rawmsley, McLelland, T. Johnson, Vance, Milton, Hines, Wilhelm, H. Johnson, Scott and Stokes.

Will Not Race Again

BY CHARLES "HORSES" AYERS
Central Press Canadian Writer.

The celebrated son of St. Germain-Bonus will be retired to the stud. The injury which laid him up a year has not healed as well as was expected. Rather than have her great thoroughbred drop down in the plate division, Mrs. Payne Whitney has decided to retire him. He will be shipped to Kentucky within a few days to be made ready for duty in the famous Whitney nursery next Spring.

Twenty Grand was one of the greatest thoroughbreds ever developed in American racing. The son of St. Germain-Bonus ran a mile as a two-year-old in the record time of 1:36. The Greentree stable champion had 122 pounds up when he accomplished this record-breaking feat. The fact that he was able to earn well over $260,000 during a racing career which was shortened through accident stamps him as one of the real outstanding champions of all time.

Twenty Grand might have been the greatest of all thoroughbreds had he remained under the care and training of Thomas W. Murphy, the celebrated thoroughbred authority. The latter developed the son of St. Germain-Bonus from an untried yearling into a world record-breaker. Those who watched the development of this great colt were more than disappointed when the former king of the harness horse world decided to resign his position after the most successful season the Greentree stable ever enjoyed.

Twenty Grand was the best two-year-old in the United States when he retired as a juvenile for freshening up for his three-year-old campaign. Trainer Murphy felt that with proper care and attention Twenty Grand should prove an even greater champion than the immortal Man o' War.

Defeat Australians by 338 Runs to Take Game Lead in "Ashes" Series

England Scores Easy Victory Over Antipodeans—Aussies' Wickets Fall Fast in Second Innings Before Great Bowling of Englishmen—Bradman Scores Fine 66

ADELAIDE, Australia, Jan. 19 (CP).—England won the third cricket test match today, defeating Australia by 338 runs to take a lead of two games out of three in the five-match series.

Victory came easily to the visitors when the Antipodeans were all out at the end of their second innings for 193 runs. They had made 222 in the first innings.

The Englishmen, batting more successfully than in the last game which Australia won, scored 341 runs in the first innings and 412 in the second.

The Australians, coming to bat for the second time yesterday, were faced with the insuperable task of scoring 532 runs to avoid defeat, while the English bowlers continued their cannonball deliveries on a pitch that was beginning to show signs of wear.

At lunch today Australia had 186 runs for six wickets, but the last four wickets fell for only seven more.

UPHILL BATTLE

Fighting an uphill battle, the Antipodeans defended resolutely, but the pitch after five days' play offered little assistance to the batsmen. Amid sporadic jeering from the small crowd, the English bowlers gave their opponents few opportunities to open out and runs came slowly.

W. M. Woodfull, the Australian captain, scored a welcome return to form, his stubborn resistance revealing the skill that brought him fame in international tussles years ago. Woodfull carried his overnight score of 36 to 68 when lunch was taken.

Victor Richardson, the South Australian, was his partner when the game was resumed today. Harold Larwood, whose bowling tactics have resulted in criticism by the Australian Board of Control, opened today by bowling on the off side of the wicket, but soon reversed to the formidable leg theory. His efforts were unsuccessful, and Hedley Verity and W. R. Hammond were brought on.

VERITY IN FORM

Verity found the wicket entirely to his liking and bowled four successive overs without a run being scored. Woodfull finally sent up the 150 and brought his own total to the half-century mark. D. R. Jardine, the opposing captain, congratulated him on his play. Richardson was at last caught at silly leg off Larwood's bowling, the fifth wicket falling with the score 171. He scored 21 runs.

C. V. Grimmett replaced Richardson and Larwood put out five slips to catch him. With this array of fielders, Grimmett caused laughter when he luckily snicked the fast English bowler to the boundary. G. O. Allen then went on for Larwood and bowled Grimmett with his first delivery, the Australian having scored 6 runs. With his dismissal the game was adjourned for lunch.

Resuming the bat with the big task in front of them of subduing the spirited English bowling yesterday, the early Aussie batsmen proved a disappointment. Don Bradman was the only one of the four to make any stand, he having knocked up 66 before being caught by Verity, who was bowling.

TAKE NO CHANCES

Eighteen thousand persons gathered to see the latter part of the English batting stand. Then M.C.C. went to bat with an overnight score of 296 for six, and Ames and Verity took the crease with obvious intention of taking no chances, but of raising the score.

Reaching the 350 mark, after more than an hour's play, Ames opened out. Bradman was given a turn with the bowling, but Ames knocked 17 runs off him in his first two overs.

Shortly after luncheon interval, Ames was bowled by O'Reilly with his score at 69. His wicket, the M.C.C.'s seventh, fell with the total score at 394. His partnership with Verity brought 98 runs in one hour and fifty minutes.

Harold Larwood, who had roused considerable ire by his leg theory tactics in the bowling of the previous days, then took the pitch. He received a mixed reception from the crowd. Four balls later, in O'Reilly's over, Verity was bowled with his score at 40. It was the eighth English wicket to fall, with the total at 395.

Thereupon the tail of the English team wagged feebly. Wickets were taken in quick succession. Larwood knocked Ironmonger for a boundary to send up the 400 mark, and then was caught by Bradman. He scored eight, and the ninth wicket fell for 403.

William Paynter was limping badly when he appeared, and Maurice Layland ran for him.

William Voce was bowled by O'Reilly for the last English wicket, after scoring eight runs. Paynter was left at bat with one run. Voce's was the last English wicket to fall, leaving the score 412, exactly 531 runs ahead of the Aussie single inning count.

Tea was taken on the dismissal of the English batters.

FINGLETON BOWLED

At resumption of play Larwood was bowling. J. Fingleton attempted to turn a third ball of Larwood's second over, and was clean bowled before he had scored. The Aussie total was three for one wicket.

The second wicket fell equally cheaply with W. H. Ponsford cutting a waist-high bouncer from Larwood into the hands of D. R. Jardine, who made a splendid catch at point. Ponsford had scored three, and the second Aussie wicket fell with the total at 12.

Larwood went into the changing room to check some trouble he was having with his boot, and the Nawab of Pataudi was given a great hand when he came to the field in the latter's place.

Don Bradman came to bat amid tremendous cheers, and immediately settled into a brilliant form of crisp driving and clever placing. He punished Verity's deliveries, sending them in all directions.

Bradman reached his fifty in 64 minutes, including eight fours. Just after that mark was attained he drove Verity for six into the stands and struck a woman on the arm.

Efforts to Be Made To Have English XI Play Match in City

Local Cricketers to Invite Test Team to Appear in Exhibition—Percy Payne Elected Head of Association—Jesse Longfield Secretary

Every effort will be made to arrange a match with the English Test team in April, should they continue with present plans to return via Victoria, it was decided at the annual general meeting of the Victoria and District Cricket Association last night. A letter will be written to P. F. "Plum" Warner, manager, to ascertain whether this will be possible. Funds obtained from the game would go to assist in paying the outstanding amount due to the city for cricket's contribution to the Macdonald property.

P. C. Payne was unanimously elected president for 1933; F. H. Allwood, the retiring secretary, was elected vice-president, Jesse Longfield was re-elected treasurer and H. T. Locke was voted into the secretarial post.

Hubert Lethaby acted as chairman, in the absence of H. W. Alexander. The secretary's and treasurer's reports were presented and accepted, the latter showing an increased balance over the preceeding year. It was definitely stated that Sir Julian Cahn's team, which will tour Eastern Canada this year, will not journey farther West than Ontario.

The report of the committee appointed to raise funds for the Macdonald field was then read by H. Lethaby, chairman of the committee. The report severely censured the cricketers of the city for failure to support the dance and frolic held at the Shrine Auditorium in October, to raise funds for the new ground and stated that, while the dance was well attended, it would have been hard to raise an eleven of cricketers on the floor. The committee resigned en bloc, but the majority of the members were persuaded to continue and a hard drive, with the promised support of all cricketers, will be made to secure the remaining funds still outstanding. The sum of $105.60 was raised by the dance and sale of a cricket bat, and this will be turned over to the park's board as an interim payment.

New Racing Bill Is Introduced In Washington State

OLYMPIC, Jan. 18.—The pari-mutuel betting horse racing bill was introduced in the House of the State Legislature today, along with nineteen other measures, the largest number filed in any one day since opening of the session January 9.

The measure would create a state commission of three to be appointed by the governor to supervise and regulate thoroughbred horse racing. It would permit the pari-mutuel betting system, but would prohibit pool-selling, bookmaking and circulation of handbooks.

Ten per cent of the gross admission fees would be collected by the state, together with licence fees and $100 per race, with the money to be turned over to the school fund.

LARWOOD'S BOWLING IS PROTESTED

Australian Cricket Board Says "Leg Theory" Tactics Unsportsmanlike

ADELAIDE, Australia, Jan. 18 (CP).—The high feeling which has been aroused in Australian cricket circles by the "leg theory" tactics of the English bowler, Harold Larwood, in the test match series, has culminated in official protest.

Larwood's persistence in bowling a fast high-bouncing ball down the leg side of the wicket, with its accompanying danger to the batsman, has already injured several Australian players.

W. A. Oldfield was forced to retire in the first innings of the third match with his score at 41 when he was hit on the head. W. M. Woodfull, Australian captain, also caused a flurry when, after being hit himself, he refused to speak to the manager of the English team and declared the M.C.C. was playing an unsportsmanlike game that was not cricket.

CAUSING ILL-FEELING

Today the Australian board of control called the Marylebone Cricket Club on the subject. "The bodyline bowling," said the protest, "has assumed such proportions as will endanger the best interests of the game. It is making the protection of the body by the batsman the main consideration and is causing intensely bitter feeling between the players, as well as injuries. In our opinion it is unsportsmanlike and unless it is stopped immediately it is likely to upset the friendly relations existing between Australian and English cricket."

RIBBONS AND SLINGERS WIN CITY CAGE TITLES

Capture Senior "A" And "B" Laurels by One-Sided Verdicts

Blue Ribbons Trim 5th Regiment, 32-18, to Win Crown Without a Defeat—Winerymen Stage Great Rally in Last Half to Down Normal, 48-18—J.B.A.A. Blues Defeat Laundry

Defeating 5th Regiment, 32 to 18, Blue Ribbons captured the men's senior "A" championship in the Victoria and District Basketball League last night, at the High School gymnasium. It was the Ribbons' twelfth straight win, and their eighth in succession in league competition. Slingers walked off with the men's senior "B" title by putting on a great second-half rally to trim Normal School, 48 to 18, while J.B.A.A. Blues captured the women's tussle from Standard Steam Laundry in the opener, 26 to 16.

With Art Chapman and Muzz Patrick caging three baskets in the opening minutes, Blue Ribbons took a lead they never relinquished. Patrick scored again from A. Chapman and the latter banged in a rebound to make it 10-5. Martin converted under the hoop from a toss in and then Peden circled in behind the Ribbons' defence to score on a pass from Lynn Patrick. The Ribbons continued their fine teamwork, and left the court with a 16-11 lead at the interval. Johnny Craig had a gala second half. He eluded his check time and again to cage five baskets in rapid time. The Gunners were off their shooting and did not tally until thirteen minutes had ticked away, when Martin and Lynn Patrick tossed in a couple.

GO TO PIECES

Falling to pieces in the second half, after holding the smooth-working Slingers quintette to a 16-16 score in the initial canto, Normals were no match for the new champions. In the first half, the students held their own, but Slingers cut loose in the final period and tossed in baskets in lightning speed. Slingers outscored Normal in the second half, thirty points to two. Ralph Mitchell and Clarence Sluggett, with sixteen points, each headed the scorers.

Going on one of the finest scoring sprees seen in the girls' division this season, "Buddy" Elston, youthful centre star, was the big noise in J.B.A.A. Blues' victory over the Laundry fair sex. Caging five baskets and a foul shot in the first two quarters, Buddy Elston gave the Blues a 14 to 5 lead in the opening half. Although Laundry fought hard in the last two periods, they failed to overtake their opponents. Buddy Elston continued her fine marksmanship, and finished the evening seventeen points opposite her name. Dot Reindle headed the losers with nine points.

Tommy Macedo refereed, and teams follow:

J.B.A.A. Blues—I. Crawford (4), L. Laird (1), E. Johnson (2), B. Elston (17), D. McCaghey, C. Yeamans (2).

DEFEAT AUSTRALIANS BY 338 RUNS TO TAKE GAME LEAD

The next ball he returned with a drive at the bowler, and Verity made a fine catch. Bradman was out with 66, and the total for three wickets stood at 100. The celebrated batsman's inning had been a masterly all-round showing, and lasted 73 minutes. His points included 10 fours and one six.

McCABE OUT CHEAPLY

Stanley McCabe only just got the feel of the bat when caught by Maurice Leyland. He had scored seven, and the fourth wicket fell for 116 runs.

The cheers which had greeted Larwood's bowling on the off turned to boos and jeers when he resorted to his leg theory in his seventh over. W. R. Woodfull, Aussie captain, and V. Y. Richardson were still batting, with the former's score at 36, when play was closed for the day, due to bad light. Richardson had not yet scored. The Aussie total was 120.

MADRICK AND MEYERS WILL GRAPPLE HERE

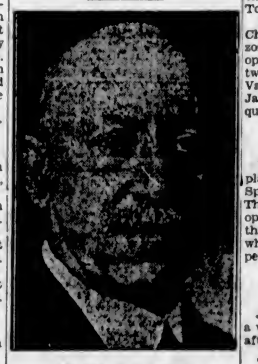

Lightweights Matched at Pacific Stadium on Tomorrow's Card

Promoter "Winnipeg" Chilton announced yesterday that he had signed Eddie Madrick, Portland, and Bobby Meyers, Tacoma, two fast and rugged lightweights, to complete the double-main-event wrestling card at the Pacific Stadium tomorrow night. In the other half of the card, Jack Taylor, holder of the Canadian heavyweight belt, of Calgary, is matched with Bob Kruse, Portland. A local preliminary will round out the show with two fast boys engaged. The first bout will start at 8:45 o'clock.

On paper the card looks like one of the best to be staged at the stadium for some time. The four grapplers are all top notchers and should give the fans plenty of action from the first bell to the last. Taylor and Kruse have established fine records and the Canadian will enter the ring with hopes of stopping the rugged Rose City squirm artist as soon as possible. Madrick and Meyers have both shown here several times and always give a good account of themselves.

Canzoneri May Risk Title in Bout in March

CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—Unless something goes wrong between now and then, Barney Ross, young Chicago contender for the lightweight championship, will get a chance at Tony Canzoneri's crown next March.

Matchmaker Nate Lewis of the Chicago Stadium today said Canzoneri had agreed to give Ross an opportunity. However, a match between Ross and Billy Townsend of Vancouver is virtually set for January 27, and Ross must win to qualify for a title fight.

SPENCERS BEAT BAYS

In an exhibition soccer game played yesterday at Central Park, Spencers defeated Hudson's Bay 2-0. The first half was scoreless. Munroe opened the score of the winners in the second half with a fine shot, while the other goal came from a penalty.

JOKERS TO WORK OUT

Jokers senior soccer team will hold a workout at Lower Beacon Hill this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The shop had been in the Jones' family for generations, so that when a large notice, "Under New Management," appeared in the window the villagers awaited curiously the coming of the new proprietor. As days went by and Jones was still behind the counter, and the notice still prominently displayed, one of the bolder spirits asked him when the new people were coming in. "What new people?" replied Jones. "You've got 'Under New Management' on the window." "Oh, that! Didn't you know I've been and got married?"

Security Prices On Lower Levels At Wall Street

NEW YORK, Jan. 18 (AP).—Light selling dented a quiet stock market today. It made considerable impression on some merchandizing and kindred issues, but otherwise the list stood up fairly well and closed a little above the day's lows.

Wheat was depressed by denial that negotiations were under way for purchase of Canadian grain by the Soviets and by weakness of Canadian exchange, and this presumably reacted on stocks. Bonds were firmer in the United States Government department, but droopy elsewhere.

Stocks were dull all day. Starting with some steadiness, the market saw no immediate reason for being particularly bullish and when special selling struck a few shares the list sold off in sympathy, although there were some exceptions to the general trend. The average loss in leaders amounted to just a point on a turnover of 686,285 shares.

Pressure was pronounced against Woolworth, off 2 3-8 net; Macy, off 3 1-2, and National Dairy, down about a point.

Tobaccos were sustained by Liggett & Myers' declaration of the usual $1 extra dividend.

The bond market bowed to further pressure today, despite a substantial rally of the United States Government list and moderate recoveries in the foreign section.

Sales totaled $14,490,000, par value.

With the exception of Liberty 3 1-2's, which were off fractionally, all of the long-term Government issues advanced.

Improved foreign trade figures brought recoveries in the German group. Improvement was shown by some of the Brazilians, French, Japanese, Hungarians and Norwegian. The South Americans were heavy.

WHEAT PRICES UNCHANGED

Trading Dull at Winnipeg—Opening Gains Are Not Maintained

WINNIPEG, Jan. 18 (CP).—With trading dull and mostly local, wheat prices received just enough stimulus from very moderate export business to close a quiet session unchanged to 1-8 cent higher on the Winnipeg grain market today.

All three futures advanced fractionally in the opening flurry of trading, but soon turned lethargic, and lost these gains. May delivery closed at 45 5-8; July at 46 3-8 and October at 47 3-4.

Good inquiries were received for Canadian wheat, but actual sales were small and confined to the Pacific Coast. Traders here discounted reports Russia would purchase a large quantity of Canadian wheat. These rumors were officially denied late today by the Amtorg Trading Corporation in New York, Soviet Russia's agents on this continent.

Cash and coarse grains continued the even tenor of their way of the past few days.

Leading Stocks at Eastern Exchanges Show Easier Trend

MONTREAL, Jan. 18 (CP).—It was a day of ups and downs on the Montreal Stock Exchange today. Stocks churned about all day, first firm, then weak, and at the close gains and losses were about evenly divided. Brazilian was moderately active and closed firm at 9 1-4, up 1-4. Canadian Pacific closed below the best level of the day at 15, up 1-8, while International Nickel was unchanged at 9.

Montreal Power and Shawinigan both turned soft toward the close and finished unchanged; Power at 30 3-4, the latter at 11 3-4. Bell Telephone moved up a point to 95 1-4. Other utilities were easy. Quebec Power declined 3-4 to 13 1-4, B.C. Power 1-4 to 15 3-4, and B.C. Power "B" 1-8 to 4 3-8.

Quarter-point losses were shown by Canada Cement at 31-4, Canadian Celanese at 9 and Bathurst Paper at 1. Canadian Industrial was off 1-8. Small advances were scored by McColl-Frontenac, St. Lawrence Corporation and Bank of Commerce.

Sales totaled 6,265 shares; bonds, $21,700.

TORONTO STOCK EXCHANGE

TORONTO, Jan. 18 (CP).—Selling broke over the oil group today on the Toronto Stock Exchange and all issues closed lower, with the exception of Imperial, which finished unchanged. British American finished at 7 7-8. Supertest ordinary lost a half-point to 1-3 and the common dropped a point to 12. McColl-Frontenac also weakened a point to 8.

The list fluctuated less violently than the Wall Street board and most of the interlisted shares closed with minor gains. Brazilian was up a quarter to 9 1-8, while C.P.R. and Nickel marked up gains of 1-8 each. Ford "A" was unchanged. Consolidated Smelters sagged 3-4 to 58 1-4.

Food shares were irregular in their performance, Canners second preferred gaining 3-8, while Dominion Stores and Laura second were weaker and Loblaw "B" steady at 11 1-4. Brewery shares lost ground, Canada Malting and Canada Bud dropping a quarter-point each, while Walkers common gained a small fraction to 5. In the banking group Commerce had a loss of 1 against a one-point gain by Toronto.

TORONTO MINING MARKET

TORONTO, Jan. 18 (CP).—Depite recessions through the list the Standard Mining Market maintained a firm tone today. Buying in some of the high-priced gold shares was quite active, Wright-Hargreaves advancing to 4.06. McIntyre and Lakeshore both had a fair trade, and Teck-Hughes and Hollinger were also steady, while Dome advanced 20 to 14.10.

Ashley featured the cheaper gold shares with a jump to 1.14, but it failed to hold there under profit taking and the close was at 1.08, down a point. Mining Corporation, which controls Ashley, climbed a little and then weakened, closing 3 down at 1.56. Siscoe gained a point, while Granada lost a little ground. Howey finished up 2 1-2 at 67 1-2, and San Antonio was also up more than a point.

The base metal shares were steady and Noranda got up above $20, holding a gain of 25 at 20.20, and Nickel was up 5 at 9.05. The penny issues are gathering a big following. Arno and Canadian Kirkland were up 3-4 and Berry weakened about a point. In the oils, Oiga was off a point to 23.

Royal Bank of Canada Presents Strong Statement

CASH ASSETS 164 MILLION DOLLARS

"Canada has maintained her credit unimpaired"

Sir Herbert Holt deals vigorously with Railway and other national problems—emphasizes need for Government Economy—Imperial Conference—Canadian Business Contions—International Outlook

Mr. M. W. Wilson reports on satisfactory year's operations—Central Bank discussed—Measures needed for business recovery

The Sixty-fourth Annual Meeting of The Royal Bank of Canada marked the close of a very successful year. The Statement submitted showed the Bank to be in a very strong liquid position. Of the Total Assets of $765,512,920, the Liquid Assets amounted to as much as $355,-929,915, and were equal to 52.86% of all Liabilities to the Public. An outstanding feature of the Liquid Assets was the large holding of Cash Assets, which reached a total of One Hundred and Sixty-four Millions.

The Annual Meeting brought together a large number of shareholders, and was marked by interesting and instructive addresses by Sir Herbert Holt, the President, and Morris W. Wilson, Vice-President and General Manager.

Vigorous comment and suggestions as regards several of the outstanding d mestic problems of Canada, and an able summary of the world economic situation and the prospects ahead; a strong plea for the amalgamation of the two Canadian railroads, as the only manner in which the grave Canadian railway situation can be solved; intervention by the provincial governments to conserve Canadian natural resources, and to prevent the collapse of the vitally important newsprint industry, if the present strong efforts being made to secure cooperation are not successful, and a condemnation of excessive governmental expenditure, featured the address of the president.

Sir Herbert said in part:

"The power of resistance which this country has shown during the third year of the depression is cause for congratulation. With no financial assistance from other countries other than a small amount of refinancing, which was arranged on a strictly business basis, with currency depreciation in terms of gold limited to a very moderate percentage, and with none of the restrictions on foreign exchange or international trade which have been found inevitable in so many cases, Canada has lived up to the letter of her contracts and maintained her credit unimpaired. In doing so she has followed the tradition of the British Empire as a whole. It is no exaggeration to say that the stability and soundness of the Empire's banking institutions have played an important part in the creation of this good record."

Railway Problem

In referring to the report of the Royal Commission on Transportation, Sir Herbert expressed the opinion that co-operation between the two railroad systems to effect mutual economies will not prove drastic enough to cut down in any adequate degree the annual deficits of the government railways, and expressed the conviction that the solution lay in complete amalgamation. He felt fears of a monopoly were groundless and that under proper safeguards unification would result in a co-ordinated transportation system adequate to the needs of the country and conducted at a minimum of expense.

Government Expenses

"For many years, Government expenditure has been on an excessive scale. Extravagance has characterized the budgets of national, provincial and municipal governments. Throughout the country there is a general demand that budgets be balanced and every effort made to lighten the heavy burden imposed upon the people by reducing the unduly heavy taxation.

"There is a noteworthy duplication of Government in Canada which leads to the excessive cost of administration. We must seriously consider whether this country can afford to maintain as many as nine Provincial Governments, together with the Federal Government, each with an elaborate organization. The whole population of Great Britain is governed by a single Parliament which finds time to legislate, not only for all internal matters, but also for these which concern the Empire as a whole."

Reviewing the Imperial Conference at Ottawa, Sir Herbert said that the material achievements attained were a triumph for Mr. Bennett and his Government

In concluding, Sir Herbert said that Canada was fully capable of meeting any further tests which might be imposed, but felt that present indications pointed to the initiation of a recovery in 1933 if a reasonable degree of international common sense and co-operation could be secured.

General Manager's Address

Mr. M. W. Wilson, Vice-President and General Manager, in referring to the position of the Bank, said that an outstanding feature of the Statement was that cash and cash balances totalled $164,630,000, or over 24% of public liabilities, total Liquid Assets being equal to over 52.86% of public liabilities. He mentioned the notable improvement in the market for Government bonds which took place during the year, and said: "Canada again proved its capacity to provide the funds required by our public bodies. During the year the average yield on Dominion Government long-term bonds declined from 5.20% to about 4.83%. This represents a distinct and very satisfactory improvement which in due course should be carried farther as additional capital seeks investment in gilt-edged securities."

Pointing out that the banking system of Canada adequately serves the needs of the country, he said that a Central Bank could perform few services not available under the present system, and would not in any sense do away with the necessity of requiring adequate security for banking accommodation, nor permit banks to undertake long-term transactions instead of short-term advances for reproductive purposes. Recognizing that the question of central banking is not one to be disposed of summarily, he said: "I should hope that if Parliament is called upon to deal with the matter, the Government will first have the project examined thoroughly by a body of experts, including several from older countries who have had experience in the practical working of a central bank. I confess to a reluctance to tinker with our financial machinery in a time like this."

Price Restoration

"On previous occasions we have stressed the importance of restoring the world price structure to approximately 1924-28 levels. I remarked last year that such action was essential if the present deflation is to be liquidated in an orderly manner, pointing out that deflation had been carried to extremes and that anti-deflation measures were urgently required. Unfortunately, price levels continued to fall until the end of June, and the rise which commenced at that time has since been cancelled. The decline for the year, as indicated by the United States Bureau of Labor Index will be, apparently, about 7%, which compares with 13% in 1931 and 17% in 1930. The best that can be said is that the rate of fall was appreciably less than in previous years.

"The vital necessity for increasing prices is now commonly recognized, but the difficulty of countering deflation increases as the depression continues. We must hope that the forthcoming World Economic Conference will point the way to constructive action in this respect.

"There is little inclination to indulge in prophecy as to the future. As Sir Herbert stated, there are indications of a gradual increase in stability throughout the world. This is particularly true in Europe, where conditions were anything but favorable a year ago. In the United States, the financial crisis is apparently over, and a return of greater confidence is in evidence. Many problems of business readjustment remain to be met, both abroad and in Canada, but real progress toward recovery has been made, and the prospect of further improvement in the coming year is much more hopeful than it was a year ago.

"I have full confidence in the character of our people and of our institutions, and without minimizing the importance of the problems that must be dealt with, I look to the future with increasing optimism."

The Story of 1932

The results achieved by The Imperial Life Assurance Company of Canada in 1932 will be very gratifying to policyholders and others interested in the Company's progress:

	1922	1932
Assurances in Force	$140,025,954.00	$291,380,798.00
Assurances Issued and Revived	23,980,734.00	27,321,794.00
Total Assets	24,928,718.62	67,465,959.60
Policy and Annuity Reserves	20,897,214.21	58,314,104.00
Premium and Interest Income	6,122,338.39	13,545,712.00
Payments to Policyholders	2,049,324.13	8,971,333.33

The millions of dollars of Reserves held by The Imperial Life for profit sharing policies are calculated on so strong a basis that interest earnings of only 3% are sufficient to maintain them. The difference between this 3% and the 5.52% actually earned gives an exceptionally wide margin for policyholders' profits and security.

Reno Gains as Bralorne and Bridge River Drop at Vancouver—Others Steady

VANCOUVER, Jan. 18 (CP).—Gold leaders furnished the bulk of activity in a listless session on the Vancouver Stock Exchange today. Active issues milled around aimlessly. At the close only three stocks registered price changes, two on the down side and one higher.

Bralorne, for the second time in several weeks, showed easiness, adding another five-point loss to its decline of the previous session, closing at 1.55. Bridge River eased a quarter to 5.3-4. Reno firmed up in early trading, but closed unchanged at 71. Cariboo Gold Quartz was steady at 2.25.

Pioneer, from a firm opening at 4.50, climbed to 4.55, at which price it closed, up 15 from yesterday's close.

The base metals and oils were quiet.

THE FAMILY ALBUM—HELP

By GLUYAS WILLIAMS

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M.D.

THERE IS NO DRUG AS POWERFUL AS HOPE

During the flu epidemic of 1918, I saw a patient fight for his life for a number of days after all hope had been given up by his physician, and the reason that he made a successful recovery was because the physician never once let him suspect that he wouldn't get better. The physician told him he was real sick, that the battle was a hard one, that everything was being done and all that could be done was to "stand by."

Dr. Axel Munthe says, "there is no drug as powerful as hope, and the slightest sign of pessimism in the face or words of a doctor may cost his patient his life."

"The ability to bring about a reaction of hope in a patient is one of the greatest talents a physician can possess. The doctor knows the cause of the ailment and the best or regular treatment for it; if he can add to this the personality to inspire hope in the patient, he has nature on his side, and she sets to work to assist in the cure."

Now that Dr. Walter B. Cannon, Harvard, has shown that the emotions can affect practically every organ and process in the body, there is no question but that the emotion of hope may set in motion certain forces within the body that would cause vital glands and organs to begin again their natural work. Many profound forces are put in motion by the human mind that build or tear down one's vitality.

Dr. L. E. Whetsell, Rushville, Indiana, points out that many a battle against disease has been lost because the family, friends, and physician created a gloomy atmosphere in the patient; and many have passed triumphantly through an illness buoyed up by hope and a cheerful, encouraging physician.

This means then that family, friends and the physician must be ever cheerful and hopeful when with the patient, because the patient, even though seriously ill, gathers knowledge of his true condition by the manner and actions of those about him.

I believe it would be well for all of us to bear this in mind in our attitude toward those who are sick mentally or physically. It is this very hope placed in the hearts of sufferers that enables ministers, priests and mental healers to bring about wonderful cures when apparently there was no possible chance for recovery.

Truly, there is no drug as powerful as hope.

Provided, however, that where any gasoline shop is required to close as herein provided the licensed occupier of such shop shall during the time said shop is required to remain closed, display and keep displayed in a conspicuous place at said shop plainly visible to the public a card or sign indicating where and how a supply of gasoline may be obtained for immediate requirements.

Provided, further, that nothing in this By-Law contained shall render the licensed occupier of any gasoline shop liable to any fine, penalty or punishment for the sale of any gasoline immediately required by any person thereat during the period of closing as herein provided where the quantity of gasoline in the motor vehicle for which the same is immediately required shall be less than three (3) gallons as measured according to the prevailing custom.

3. Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained the provisions of this By-Law requiring the early closing of gasoline shops shall not extend to nor affect the closing of said shops in respect of the period from December 15th to December 24th, both inclusive, in any year.

4. Any person who commits a breach of any provision of the Shops Regulation Act or of this By-Law shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine or penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100.00) in costs recoverable and enforceable in the manner provided by the "Summary Convictions Act."

Wooden Coin Not Popular With Visitors

BLAINE, Wash., Jan. 18 (AP).—This wooden money is causing no end of trouble.

Now Canadians are objecting to having their money discounted in exchange for the wooden coins, which is being used for relief work payments.

With its 100 per cent backing in United States currency and city warrants, the wooden money has been selling at a premium of 13 per cent over Canadian money.

The City Council promises to try to find a solution to problems of exchange with countries having depreciated currencies.

Although the President and President-Elect both were chary today of formal commitment to agenda of this their second meeting, it was stated officially that talk would be centered upon "what is going on" in foreign affairs.

Beneath the surface, however, the possibility that the conflict between the Japanese and Chinese forces in Jehol might expand, and such incidents as the wrecking of an American plant in Yokohama have been major subjects of concern among administration leaders.

The President-Elect's statement, following his foreign affairs talk with Secretary Stimson last week, that American foreign policy must continue to uphold "the sanctity of international treaties" gave further fuel to the speculation.

There was no doubt here tonight that the meeting would see still another effort to bring the outgoing and incoming administrations into a single line concerning continuing international problems.

prosecutors, judges and executioners," charged the judge.

Charges by Hon. W. J. Major, Attorney-General, of "excessive abuse of authority" regarding cancellation of garnishee orders was "despicably mean," and the reason it was brought against him, the judge said, was because he had attempted to draw the attention of the public to "this vicious thing."

He attacked the Dominion Government for giving him a "stab in the back," and for withholding part of his December salary for arrears on a special income tax. He charged them with "garnishee to the 'nth degree."

The whole investigation was a "political conspiracy" against him, witness claimed; and he would refuse to explain any of his judgments to anyone. The very suggestion of removal of a judge because of his judgments was, he said, "so incredibly stupid and incomprehensibly silly I cannot understand how it was contemplated."

Imperial Life Report Shows Steady Progress

Increase in Dividends to Policyholders Predicted at Annual Meeting in Toronto—Assets and Reserves Show Substantial Gains

The past year was an unhappy one for many, but in the case of the Imperial Life substantial progress was maintained and some pleasant surprises were presented to the policyholders by the president, G. A. Morrow, and the managing director, J. F. Weston, at the annual meeting held in Toronto recently. The very substantial volume of over $27,300,000 in assurances written was reported. Cash income for the year from premiums was $10,197,000 and from interest $3,348,000, giving a total cash income of over $13,500,000. The disbursements to policyholders and beneficiaries during the year were nearly $8,900,000.

Of special interest to policyholders was the increase in dividends which they may expect during 1933 over those of 1932. Last year the Imperial Life felt it prudent to conserve their resources by substantially reducing dividends to policyholders. As a result, in 1933 they find themselves able to make an important increase in such disbursements.

The assets of the company have been increased by $1,300,000 and now stand at over $76,465,000. Valuation of securities has been made at a conservative figure, well within the limit allowed by the Dominion Insurance Department. This has been done without drawing upon a special contingency reserve of $1,000,000 which remains intact. The general reserves of the company stand at over $58,300,000, an increase over the previous year of over $1,400,000. The net surplus earnings resulting from the year's operations amounted to over $2,450,000. The company's net surplus funds at the end of the year amounted to over $3,300,000, and this after paying out dividends to policyholders of $1,803,000, revaluing securities and setting up ample provision for insurance and annuity liabilities.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD AT NANAIMO

NANAIMO, Jan. 18. — Funeral services for Charles I. Louttit, who passed away at Parksville on Friday, were held here Monday, conducted by Rev. E. B. Arrol, of the United Church, Parksville. The pallbearers were: S. G. Carter, J. J. Scales, A. Teit, Jerome Wilson, R. T. Wilson and Nicholas Wright. Interment was in Nanaimo Cemetery.

Deceased, who was eighty-seven, was a native of Orkney Islands, Scotland, and had been in Canada for nearly sixty years. He resided in Ontario for thirty years, and on coming to British Columbia he located in the boundary country for a number years and later came to the coast, where he lived in Victoria, Cedar and Parksville. He is survived by his son in Great Falls, Montana. He was a life member of Golden Rule Lodge, A.F. & A.M., Campbellford, Ont., and also of the Royal Arch Masons.

"If any constitutional differences in regard to the powers and responsibilities of the Federal and provincial authorities are to hinder or impede the remedies necessary or the policies which should be pursued, we should not hesitate to amend our constitution so as to give the National Government complete control of and complete responsibility for what is today in its nature, in its essence, and in its menace, a national problem.

MOBILIZATION OF RESOURCES

"If the problem can not be solved by the ordinary processes of government, then we should not hesitate to mobilize the entire resources of the nation to insure that distress and hardship and poverty are eliminated from our midst.

"We should insist that the accumulated wealth should pay its proper share to the nation, and bear its proper burden in meeting this serious crisis.

"We should immediately embark upon a policy of unemployment insurance after careful actuarial investigation, although I fear that such a system could not be of much avail in meeting the problem of the present depression.

"We should countenance the rationing of work, encourage the shortening of the hours of labor, and the dole should never be restored to where any other remedy is possible. We should enthrone the rights of the common man by destroying the wrongs of money.

"It is refreshing to remember," Mr. Mackenzie said, "that after two and one-half years the only concrete remedy of the Government, after expenditure of $200,000,000 and after the number of unemployed have risen from 100,000 to 800,000 is to come back to the policy advocated by the Liberal party in 1930 in regard to an interprovincial conference and in regard to unemployment insurance."

Referring to the Government's part in the stabilizing of the wheat market, Mr. Mackenzie said this would occasion further investigation.

"When a Government which punishes under the provisions of the Criminal Code the slightest flutter in a lottery by a humble citizen, itself indulges in a gamble of the wildest kind in wheat, a flutter costing, to date, the people of Canada somewhere in the neighborhood of thirty million dollars, it is time that the people of Canada woke up to the enormity of the powers that were taken by the executive over the head of Parliament, and woke up to the disastrous consequences resulting to the Canadian taxpayers from this unjustifiable action."

SCHOOL BUDGET IS INCREASED

survey of the repairs necessary under normal conditions had been made. From this list had been struck work that could stand over. As a result the estimate for buildings and grounds was placed at $22,500. Kingston Street school was in a bad condition, he reported, and would require a great deal of repairing.

It was pointed out prior to the school board going into camera that a 5 per cent cut in the payroll would balance the budget. The board, in camera, discussed teachers' salaries, but nothing will be done, it was stated, until Trustee George Jay, chairman of the board, is able to consider the matter. He was absent from last night's meeting. It might be found possible to balance the budget without cutting salaries, but grave doubts were expressed by several of the board.

ANNUAL REPORT IS ENCOURAGING

Mutual Life Co. of Canada Shows Increase in Surplus Earnings

One of the first of the Canadian life insurance companies to report on its operations for 1932 is the Mutual Life Assurance Company of Canada, with head offices at Waterloo, Ontario, which presents a strong and encouraging statement, and one which should prove gratifying to the company's policyholders. It is pleasing to note that the company has maintained its earning power in so high a degree as the surplus earnings of $5,509,688.31 are greater than the earnings of a year ago—these ear

SYNOPSIS

Both girls are found unconscious in wrecked cars after Kay Bishop's high-powered roadster looms suddenly on the wrong side of the road at the crest of Pilot Knob, in the Ozarks, and bears down on June Varick's little blue coupe. The next they know they are in twin beds in June's home in Rolla, under the care of Dr. Varick, June's father. Kay's arm is broken and June's leg is in splints. Dr Varick has learned Kay's identity from papers in her bag but has been uncertain whom to notify until he gets St. Louis newspapers telling of the disappearance of the Bishop heiress and the fears of her brother, Bruce, that she has been kidnapped. Although the petulant Kay says, "There's no rush; it will do him good to fume a little," June's father telephones him. Kay tells June her mother left a most unjust will, making Bruce, who is only five years older, her guardian. She will soon be twenty-one. Kay then asks June not to tell Bruce the accident was her fault, saying he would never let her drive a car again. She warns June not to fall for Bruce, as all girls do, as he has no use for girls. June had planned to enter the state university school of journalism at Columbia, but her father says she will have to await the examination of X-rays before he can tell when she will be able to walk. June is very favorably impressed by the tall, handsome Bruce when he arrives. Despite what Kay has said, he seems much interested in June.

CHAPTER II

When June awoke a girl sat beside her bed, a golden brown girl with adoring brown eyes fastened on her.

"Jane," she said, sleepily, and yawned herself into a happy welcome. "I'm so glad you came. Why didn't you waken me?"

"I did my best. I sure am sorry you got hurt, June—and so is everybody else—all the crowd sent you love and kisses. They want to come and see you, but the doctor won't permit it now."

"Jane, I can't go to Columbia—did you know that? And dad won't say when I can."

"That's tough. But you can go for the mid-term. And you know we always have a pretty swell time until after the holidays, anyway."

"Is that your girl friend, June?" came a voice from the other bed.

"Yes, I didn't know you were awake. It's Jane Palmer—Miss Bishop, Jane."

"Come here, Jane—I've a favor to ask you, so please make up your mind to do it before I tell you—if you will, I'll send you the newest vanity out when I get back to New York."

"You don't have to bribe me," Jane reassured her. What is it?"

"Send a telegram for me, and don't tell a soul."

"That's easy. To your sweetie, of course."

"Certo."

It was nearly dusk when Bruce came in. He had gone to see about having his car repaired, after a long sleep. He looked angry, June saw at once. He went immediately to Kay's bedside, and waved a slip of paper before her.

"What does this mean?" he demanded. "I found it in the car! Did you stay in a hotel in Salem, Friday night? I thought you didn't leave St. Louis until Saturday morning? But this bill—you couldn't have gotten it if you hadn't been there. Was—"

"Don't be obnoxious, Bruce. I stayed there, of course. I was mad at you and ran away just to worry you. But I was sorry and was on my way back when this accident occurred—"

His face relaxed its tenseness, and he sat down unsteadily. "Forgive me, sis. I'm all stirred up, I guess. I worried like fury about you, when you disappeared. Don't ever do that again."

"I won't," she agreed, and watched him as his eyes traveled across the wide room to observe June. Her red-gold braids lay across her blue satin bed-jacket, and her gaze was far away, fastened on the hills receding into a purple dusk.

Two weary days passed, lightened by Bruce's anxious attention. He wired St. Louis for flowers, hothouse fruit, and candy. The local bookstore was ravaged of the best books and magazines. He read aloud to them from The New Yorker, The Forum, and "Shadows on the Rock." Of the latter, Kay would have none, demanding that he stop. June wished he would continue. His voice was resonant, beautiful. He made the little French girl, Cecile, live. But Kay was excited and restless. Nothing pleased her, and she smoked so many cigarettes that the room was blue with smoke; June wished that she might be moved onto the sleeping porch.

It was two a.m. June could see by the luminous dial of the bedside clock when she awoke to the sound of whispering voices. The room was in soft darkness, but gradually the shadowy form of a man took shape as he leaned over Kay's bed. June's first impulse was to scream. Then realizing the source of the whispering, she contained her alarm, especially, when the term, "darling," came to her distinctly, in a husky, masculine voice.

June lay still. It must be the man to whom Kay had gotten Jane Palmer to send the telegrams. She must not let them know she was awake. Kay must never suspect her secret was shared. Now, her voice rose, incautious with emotion.

"I was so afraid you might not make it! I nearly died with impatience, all day! I'm going to St. Louis the moment I can get away, and you can come to see me there! Darling, tell me you love me!"

"Dear little girl! More than my very life—you know!"

"But you failed me! Oh, why didn't you come to Salem that night? I wouldn't be hurt now, if you had—"

"Sweetheart, I told you my plane was in trouble—I had a forced landing. Then I couldn't reach you in St. Louis, nor in Salem, so I went back to New York, frantic until I got your message!"

June, lying so still, every nerve tense with the effort not to make a sound, screamed when the room was suddenly flooded with light, and her father, in his dressing-gown, and a revolver in his hand, stood in the doorway.

"Hands up!" he commanded.

June's frightened eyes raced to the man beside Kay. He was a swarthy, foreign looking type, with a small moustache, bright black eyes, and gleaming white teeth, disclosed by the nonchalant smile which accompanied his gesture of uplifted arms.

"I beg your pardon, sir," he said, "for the very unceremonious hour and manner in which I choose to visit your residence."

It was Kay's turn to scream then, for Bruce suddenly catapulted himself into the room. "You cad!" he cried, and with agile fierceness leaped upon the other man.

Dr. Varick was not of an age or physique to interfere actively in a physical encounter between two young men. The unusual noises had aroused the household. Miss Martin stood aghast in the doorway, nervously trying to adjust her cap. Black Chloe, her eyes rolling in terror, gaped from a safe position in the hall. It seemed longer, but it was actually only a few seconds until the doctor's voice was heard distinctly above the scuffling of the combatants.

"Stop instantly, or I'll shoot!" he commanded.

Reluctantly, the two young men ceased pummelling each other and fell apart. Each got to his feet, a little dazed, very dishevelled.

Dr. Varick addressed the stranger. "I don't know who you are, but suppose you get out. If you've got anything to say, come around tomorrow and do it in the open."

"I am Ramon Iovieno, sir," he said, "and I offer my most humble apologies." He turned to Kay. "I will stay at the hotel, my beloved, and tomorrow I will communicate with you."

"You'll do nothing of the kind!" Bruce sprang forward.

"That will do, Mr. Bishop," said the doctor. "Come down to my study and we'll talk this over."

Bruce smoothed his ruffled hair with his hands, and tied the cord of his dressing-gown. With hands thrust into his pockets, and his face dark with defiance and anger, he took the chair Dr. Varick indicated.

The doctor shoved a box of cigarettes towards him. "Smoke?" he asked, and proceeded to light his pipe.

Bruce took a cigarette, regarding the older man with miserable, baffled eyes. "I'm terribly sorry this happened in your home, Dr. Varick," he said, "especially on June's account."

"This man is interested in your sister, I assume?"

"Yes sir. I'd like to tell you the whole thing, if you'll be good enough to listen. Perhaps you can advise me."

"Go ahead. It will do you good."

"Kay met him in France, nearly two years ago. Mother was with her, and disapproved from the start. But my sister has always been headstrong and mother cabled for me. I investigated the chap's record. He is Italian, and, of course, a count. Just the set-up a silly young girl falls for. Impoverished estates. I looked him up in Italy, but his so-called castle is closed, and practically in ruins, even if it does belong to him. The natives were noncommittal—the count was traveling abroad, they said—perhaps he would never return—all very mysterious. Naturally, my mother was convinced he was an unsuitable match for Kay. But Kay was so persistent in her attachment for the man that when my mother died a year ago, she left a will, appointing me Kay's guardian. If she marries without my consent, before she is twenty-five, her share of the estate goes to the Passavant Foundation."

"Apparently, they are still in love, after two years; I'd say the attachment savored of permanency."

"He is after her money. She has doubtless told him if they keep on that she will get me to relent. As for her, when you oppose her in anything, she is determined to have it. The love side of it will die out, if I can keep them apart—love always does, if you give it a chance."

"You don't believe in love?"

"Oh, certainly there is an emotion that goes by that name. But it never lasts. At least, I've never known of a case where it did. All my friends who have married are either divorced or want to be."

"Were your mother and father divorced?"

"No sir, but I imagine it was because they were old-fashioned in their ideas. I never gave it much thought."

"You have my sympathy, young man. It is sad to be disillusioned at any age, but particularly so at yours. There are so many years ahead."

"I've thought of that. I'm going to try to be useful. There is a lot of money in the family that needs looking after, and I am going to do my best to learn my job of using it intelligently. I'd like to put it to some good use."

Dr. Varick knocked the ashes from his pipe and stood up. "I predict that you will change your ideas about love, my boy. I'd say you have it in you to be loyal and kind to a woman, if you get rid of your materialistic notions. Now, you asked me for advice about your sister, and I'll give it to you. But you won't like it. It's this: don't interfere in other people's lives. In the morning go and tell your sister if she still wants to marry this chap you won't oppose it. She has as much right to choose her life as you have. At least, she wants to marry—probably found a family—and that is a worthy thing in itself."

"She wants to be an Italian countess until she gets tired of her toy! Then there'll be another divorce. Besides, I can't change my mind. I promised my mother I wouldn't, and that promise is sacred."

"A death-bed promise, I assume?"

"Very nearly so."

"Unfair, then; think it over."

"I have, sir, and I'm much obliged to you."

The following morning a letter came for Kay, by messenger, before Bruce was up. Chloe, still looking a bit frightened from the experiences of the night before, took it upstairs.

"How wuz you all, this mornin', Miss June?" she asked, but her eyes were fastened on Kay, as she eagerly scanned her letter.

"I'm all right, Chloe—but horribly sick of staying in bed with my leg in this fix. Are you taking good care of daddy? How is his appetite?"

"It ain't so perky. Peers like he's a right smart worried 'bout somethin'."

"That's what I thought. Why don't you make him a deep dish of apple pie for dinner, and roast chicken?"

"Yes'm, I will, if you reckon he'd like it. Miss June, that Mistah Ferguson, he keeps telephonin' and askin' can he come ovah to see you all."

"I didn't know he was back. Sure, tell him I'll be glad to see him." As long as she couldn't get away now, she'd have to see Hickory, and apparently she found it no hardship.

NEW YORK, Jan. 18 (CP).—Fractional declines were displayed by the Canadian dollar and pound sterling on foreign exchanges today. The dollar closed 3-8 cent weaker at 87 cents (United States premium of 15 per cent), after opening at 87 1-4 cents. Sterling ended the session 3-16 cent lower at $3.34 7-8 for cables. "She's just buried her fourth husband, hasn't she?"

"Divorced, my dear, not buried—she never makes any bones about these things."

Mrs Can't

The above lady is Mrs Can't. She is wondering for the seventeenth time this morning why she is not as attractive as Mrs Can—why her skin will come out in blotches, and her hair look so dull and stringy. The lady unfortunately is poisoned, though she would probably have a heart attack if you told her. And yet poisoned is the only word for what clogged and stagnant foodways do to you. If Mrs Can't would take Eno every morning, waste matter would be gone—before it got a chance to work havoc with her good looks.

Mrs Can

On the other hand, Mrs Can is looking at herself—because she likes looking at herself. She knows why her husband is so jealous of her. She knows why other men whisper to her, "If Jim hadn't married you, I would have." She knows, too, that a daily inner cleansing is worth all the paint and powder in the world. It's three years this month since she started taking Eno. And Eno, by keeping her clean inside, has kept her lovely skin and her bright eyes and her glistening hair—unspoiled. She's clever—is Mrs Can.

A clean inside is the only foundation of outward sparkle and beauty. To ensure real inner cleanliness is Eno's one purpose. And from the very moment you drink it, you know that Eno will succeed. Will do for your inner self what pure soap and fresh water do for your outward self. Will cleanse and sweeten and refresh your whole system—safely, surely, positively. Need you be like Mrs Can't? Of course not! Take Eno first thing each morning and before retiring at night.
